

The Last Century in the History of Judah The Seventh Century BCE in Archaeological, Historical, and Biblical Perspectives

Filip Čapek and Oded Lipschits, editors

An incomparable interdisciplinary study of the history of Judah

Experts from a variety of disciplines examine the history of Judah during the seventh century BCE, the last century of the kingdom's existence. This important era is well defined historically and archaeologically beginning with the destruction layers left behind by Sennacherib's Assyrian campaign (701 BCE) and ending with levels of destruction resulting from Nebuchadnezzar's Babylonian campaign (588–586 BCE). Eleven essays develop the current ongoing discussion about Judah during this period and extend the debate to include further important insights in the fields of archaeology, history, cult, and the interpretation of Old Testament texts.
