

GTU

Admissions and Financial Aid

SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

To learn more, reach out to us at finaid@gtu.edu, or admissions@gtu.edu

Presidential Scholarships

The GTU offers a limited number of merit-based, full tuition scholarships. All doctoral program applicants are automatically considered for this award.

Hearst Diversity Scholarships

These merit-based scholarships are specifically for students from underrepresented backgrounds. All eligible doctoral program applicants are automatically considered for this award.

Distinguished Scholars Fund

These merit-based scholarships are geared towards students with interests in gender or women's studies. All eligible doctoral program applicants are automatically considered for this award.

Ida J Thornton Scholarships

These merit-based scholarships are geared towards students with interests in gender or women's studies. All eligible doctoral program applicants are automatically considered for this award.

Bernard Osher Scholarships

These merit and need-based scholarships are geared towards helping students who are interested in teaching and have need. All eligible doctoral program applicants are automatically considered for this award.

Hispanic Theological Initiative

The GTU is a member of the Hispanic Theological Initiative Consortium. With our membership, we sponsor up to three students of Hispanic or Latinx origin. We designate a student in coursework, comprehensive exams and dissertation stage for networking support. HTI offers a dissertation fellowship for students at the dissertation phase.

Paul Podvin Endowment

These are partial, merit-based scholarships geared towards doctoral students in the area of youth-focused spirituality with a particular focus on at risk youth.