

In Memory of Jan A. du Rand (1945-2021)

With sadness we report the Covid-related death of Jan A. du Rand, a well-known and well-respected churchman and New Testament scholar in South Africa. Jan collaborated on several Afrikaans Bible translations, for years had a syndicated radio program, and received numerous awards, including a lifetime achievement award. He taught at University of Free State, University of Johannesburg, and North West University. He was a Johannine specialist, notably regarding the Book of Revelation.

Written by Klyne Snodgrass
Emeritus Professor of New Testament
North Park Theological Seminary

*Learn more about the life of Jan A. du Rand here.