Colleagues • Publishers • Friends

On behalf of the Board of Directors, it is my privilege to announce the formation of this journal, The EMCUS, 엠커스. This journal is launched on behalf of many recent voices in Korea and the United States for new ways of expressing life together as Christ people.

The journal means to represent the deepening life together in the middle of the world that Christ people today are already developing. It is a step away from pious traditionalism and a step toward vibrant spirit and life that addresses ways for broader ranges of people to live collectively together in terms of economics, spiritual expression, community power and depth, and social sharing. We reject narrow church frames and embrace ways of being Christ people in our neighborhoods; with a wide diversity of backgrounds, ages, and expressions; and at the intersections of our different, national, cultural, and spiritual, and economic realities.

As a journal we mean to explore, develop, deepen, critique, and build life together. We open ourselves to new ideas, ancient and postmodern practices, and self-criticism. The main topics cover ancient scriptures and practices, new and young investments in values and ways of being together, and ways of supporting humanity's own development. We are Christ people on our way and with intentions to grow in our depth and connections; but we will not lock ourselves away from the vibrancy of the bigger world.

We invite you to write alongside us. Many of us are scholars. Many of us work alongside people in the middle of the world. One of the main surprises and strengths in our communities have to do with the way we live and eat together regularly. The DiKAP leadership of this movement in Korea (primarily) and the United States takes its pioneering meals together in community from the first two centuries of communal meals by Christ People in the Mediterranean. We invite you to bring your thoughts, hopes, and wisdom to us so that we can also learn from you.

- Senior Editor, Hal Taussig

GETTING TO THE MEETING...

The Annual Meetings 2022, hosted by SBL & AAR, brings together professors and students, authors and publishers, religious leaders and interested laypersons, to its venue each year. Co-hosted by the Society of Biblical Literature and the American Academy of Religion, the Annual Meetings focuses on the fields of biblical scholarship and research, religious studies, and theology.

Attendees of the Annual Meetings in Denver will have access to more than 1000 academic sessions and workshops. In addition, attendees will have access to the Book Exhibit Hall which features one of the world's largest collections of books and digital resources for biblical study, as well as a vibrant networking space where attendees can present ideas to publishers, browse the latest publications, and connect with colleagues.

ONLINE PROGRAM BOOK

A complete listing of all SBL, AAR, and Other Events session information, including participant names, paper titles, and abstracts are available in the Online Program Book on the AAR website at papers.aarweb.org/online-program-book and on the SBL website at https://www.sbl-site.org/meetings/Congresses_ProgramBook.aspx?MeetingId=41. The keyword search feature will allow you to find the sessions you're most interested in attending!

INTERNATIONAL ATTENDEES

It is necessary for those entering the United States to clear customs and immigration. Visitors from Canada and Mexico must present a passport in order to enter the United States. Visitors from the 38 countries that are part of the Visa Waiver Program must have an e-Passport (embedded with an electronic chip) in order to skip the visa process. Please be prepared. Non-U.S. citizens should inquire about possible visa requirements from their own country. Official letters of invitation to the Annual Meeting to support visa applications are available. Please indicate during registration in the "Letter of Invitation" portion if you would like to request a letter. If you have questions, you may e-mail annualmeeting@sbl-site.org or reg@aarweb.org after you have completed registration to obtain more details about the information required.

Please note that SBL and AAR will fully refund registration fees with no penalty to all members in good standing whose visa applications are denied or who are otherwise restricted from entering the United States. For full refund, members must provide a copy of the visa rejection or other written proof of travel restriction.

TRAVEL INFORMATION AND DISCOUNTS

Delta Airlines, United Airlines, and American Airlines are the official carriers of the SBL and AAR Annual Meetings. For the benefit of our conference attendees, a discount is available and is valid a few days before and after the Annual Meeting ends, depending on carrier. To take advantage of these special discounted fares, you can call or make reservations directly through their respective websites listed below. Discounts do not apply to certain restricted fares and exclude sale fare inventories.

CALL TOLL-FREE...

Carrier	Phone Number	Website	File Number
Delta Airlines	1-800-328-1111	delta.com	NMVMC
United Airlines	1-800-426-1122	ual.com	ZKZ2762326
American Airlines	1-800-433-7300	aa.com	A75N2DI

Note that this discount does not apply to pre-paid reservations. If you prefer a pre-paid discount, do not use the meeting code. Pre-paid reservations have cancellation penalties, whereas using the discount above does not.*

If you book through your own travel agency, be sure to give them the appropriate discount code above.

When booking transportation (flights, trains, etc.) we recommend that you check all cancellation policies and related fees. Details on U.S. travel restrictions can be found at travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/traveladvisories/COVID-19-Country-Specific-Information.html.

GETTING AROUND DENVER

It's easy to get from Denver International Airport (DEN) to Downtown Denver on the airport rail line. At a cost of $10.50, and in only 37 minutes, travelers can use the A Line to get from the airport to downtown Denver and vice versa, courtesy of the Regional Transportation District, (RTD), metro Denver's public transit provider.

Board the A Line at the DEN Transit Center (look for the signs that say Transit Center instead of airport rail), Level 1, adjacent to the Westin Denver International Airport Hotel. The train will take you to downtown, specifically Denver Union Station. From Denver Union Station you will have access to our conference hotels and the Colorado Convention Center via the free 16th Street Mallshuttle (MallRide) and free downtown MetroRide buses that provide access to most hotels.

Daily schedule from DEN to Denver Union Station:

- ✧ Every 15 minutes between 5:12 AM and 7:27 PM
- ✧ Every 30 minutes outside of those hours

Taxis

A cab or taxi can put you in the heart of the city in about 25 minutes. You'll find taxis at Level 5, Island 1, outside Door 507 (east side) and Door 510 (west side). Flat rates are the same for all companies. A one-way fare from DEN to Downtown is around $56.00.

Shared-Ride Service (such as Uber or Lyft)

If you have requested rides through the Lyft or Uber apps, follow signs for ground transportation, then exit the terminal through Doors 506–510 (west side) and 507–511 (east side) on Level 5 near baggage claim and proceed to Island 5 to meet your driver.

PARKING AT COLORADO CONVENTION CENTER

The Colorado Convention Center provides access to an onsite covered parking garage. The garage provides access to the Colorado Convention Center and the Denver Performing Arts Complex (DPAC). The garage is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week to all visitors and guests attending any event or business in the downtown area.

Due to the expansion of the Colorado Convention Center our parking garage capacity has been reduced. You may need to find alternative parking. There are many lots and garages around the Convention Center so please plan ahead or plan to ride share or use public transportation.

HOTEL INFORMATION

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS

SBL and AAR have negotiated special group rates at fifteen hotels, all within walking distance to the Colorado Convention Center. The hotel rates, locations, and amenities vary by location and are summarized in the chart below.

You can get the discounted group rate only by reserving your room during the online registration process, and you must be registered to secure housing. Be sure to follow the instructions carefully and provide all requested information. Special rates will not be available after October 21, 2022. Please do not contact the hotel directly before November 11, 2022 as they will not have your information. Hotel room rates do not include the average of 16.75 percent hotel room tax.

Hotel reservations are available from Thursday, November 17, through Tuesday, November 22, 2022.

HOUSING CONFIRMATION

You will receive an email confirmation (which is the same as your registration confirmation) when you make your hotel reservation with the SBL and AAR Housing Department. If you do not complete registration with payment and receive a confirmation email, your housing reservation is not complete. If you receive an email confirmation that is incorrect, you may use the link on your confirmation email to go back into the system and correct it.

HOUSING CANCELLATIONS OR CHANGES

All hotel accommodation questions, changes, and cancellations should be directed to the SBL and AAR Housing Department throughout the meeting year. Note that cancellations must be received at least 72 hours prior to your arrival date to ensure you are not charged your first night's stay.

SUITE REQUESTS

Some hotels have suites available at a discounted rate. Contact the SBL and AAR Housing Department for more information: 1-855-836-0001 (U.S. & Canada); +1-404-727-7972 (outside U.S. & Canada); annualmeeting@sbl-site.org or housing@aarweb.org. Suites are not to be used for interviewing purposes. Employers wishing to conduct an interview should contact careers@aarsbl.org to schedule an appropriate space.

ATTENDEES WITH ACCESSIBILITY NEEDS

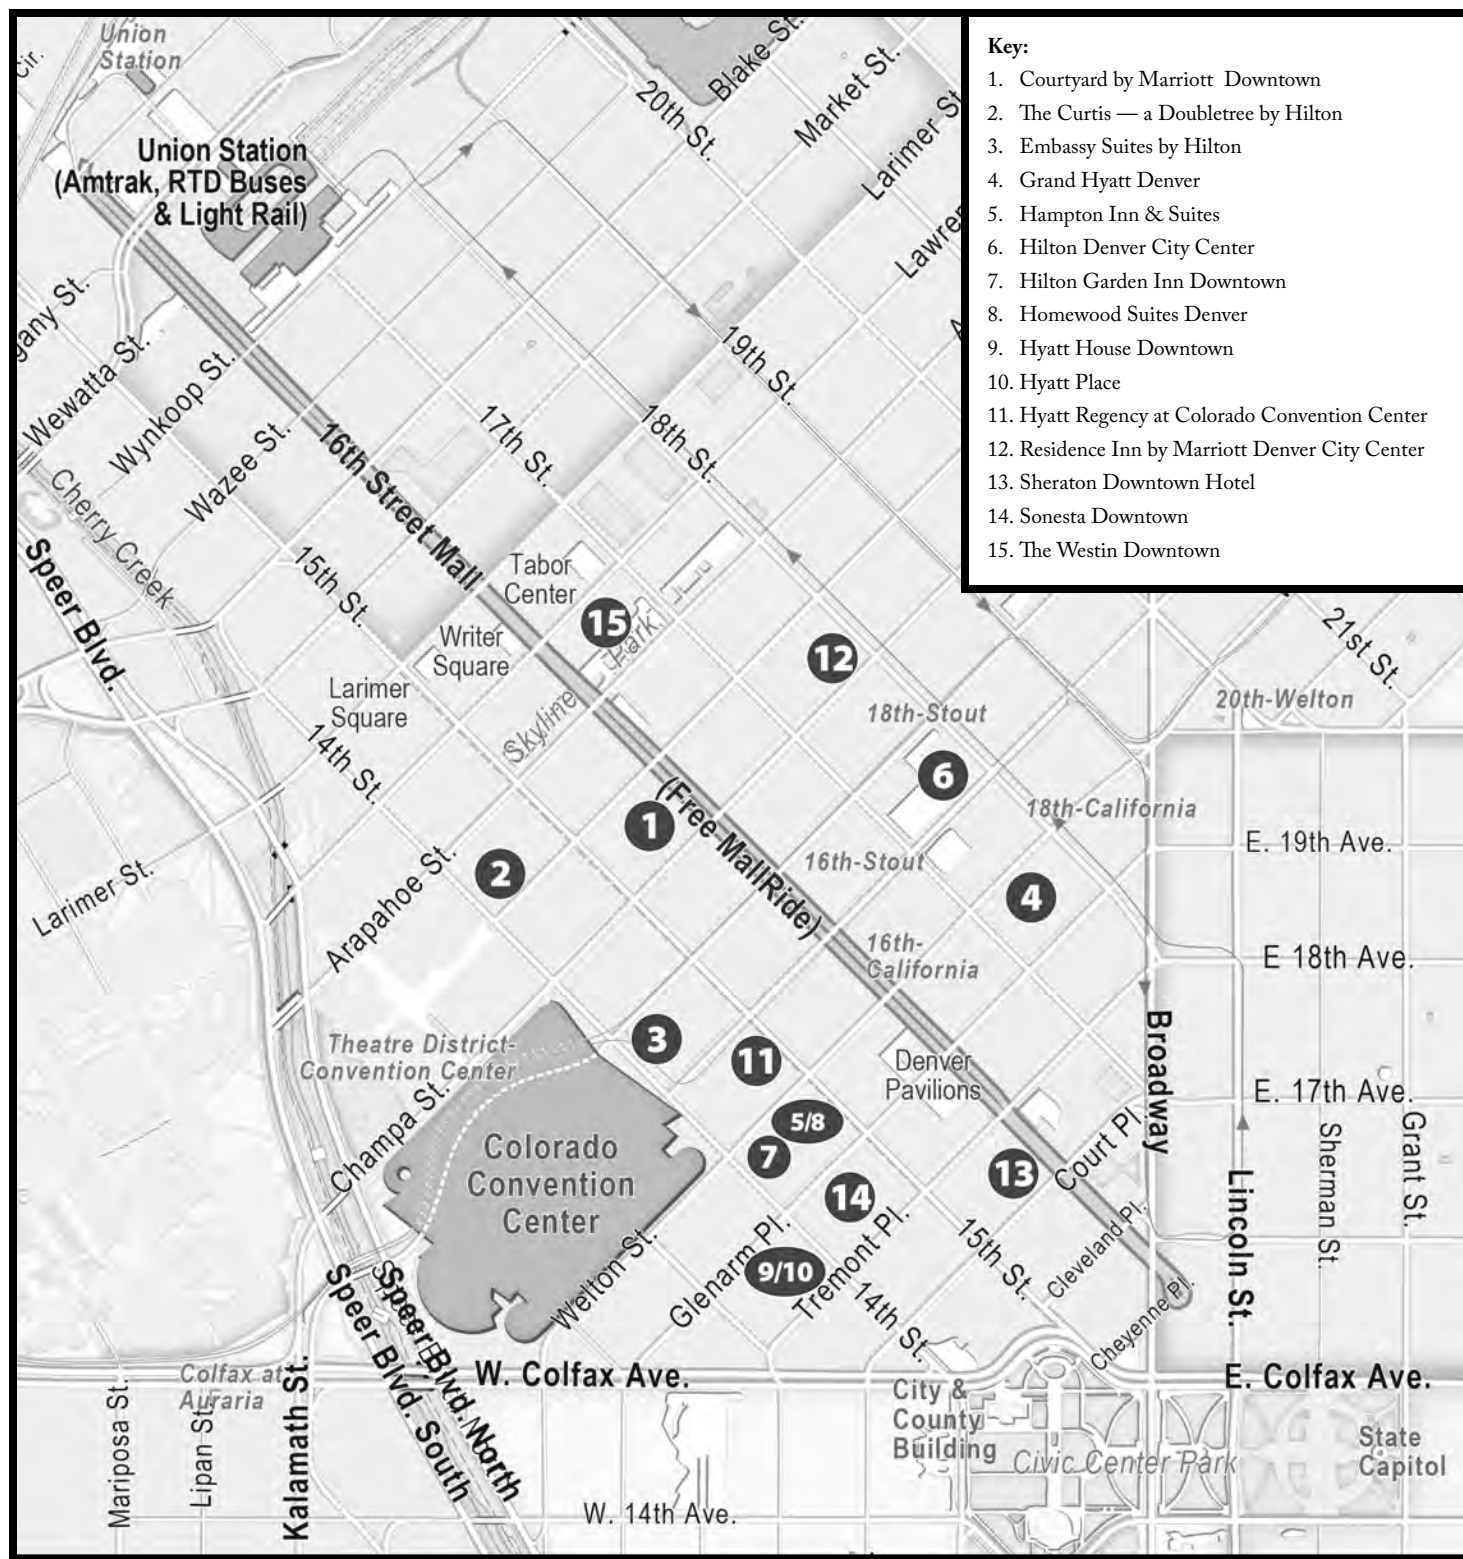

All meeting rooms are accessible by elevator (doors are wide enough to accommodate wheelchairs) or wheelchair lift. A limited number of guest rooms are set aside for people with disabilities. If you need accommodations related to a disability, please indicate your specific needs in the special requests field on the online housing form page.

Attendees with disabilities who need information regarding accommodations or assistance during the meeting should contact the SBL and AAR Housing Department by phone at 1-404-727-7972 or via e-mail at annualmeeting@sbl-site.org or housing@aarweb.org.

WHEELCHAIR OR ELECTRIC SCOOTER RENTAL

Attendees who wish to rent a wheelchair or electric scooter for use during the Annual Meeting are encouraged to contact the UPS Store Wheelchair and Scooter Rental (720) 749-3956 to reserve your wheelchair or electric scooter. They can make arrangements to have equipment delivered to your hotel or to the Colorado Convention Center.

TOUR INFORMATION AND FORM

DENVER CITY TOUR

Saturday, November 19, 1:00 PM–3:30 PM; Cost: $45

Panorama of Denver Skyline at Twilight — © f11photo — stock.adobe.com

Experience two sides of Denver—historic western town and thriving modern city—all on the same tour! From the hotel, head through some of Denver's historic residential areas like City Park, Capitol Hill and LoDo (Lower Downtown), and some of Denver's up and coming neighborhoods like LoHi (Lower Highland) and RiNo (River North). Attendees can take pictures from the Denver Museum of Nature and Science, overlooking City Park and the Denver Skyline and the Rocky Mountains.

HISTORIC HAUNTED DENVER TOUR

Sunday, November 20, 3:00 PM– 5:00 PM; Cost: $35

Venture into the heart of one of Denver's oldest neighborhoods—and hear many of the city's spookiest ghost stories as you visit its supposedly haunted landmarks—on this small-group walking tour. You'll explore the historical Capitol Hill neighborhood, where you can see highlights like Titanic survivor Molly Brown's house, creepy hotels, apartment blocks, and more.

SACRED SITES TOUR

Monday, November 21, 1:00 PM–5:00 PM; Cost: $40

A mile high and just east of the Rocky Mountains, Denver grew from a mining town into a hub of the American west. It drew Chinese and European immigrants, African Americans, and the Ku Klux Klan. Our tour will visit sites reflecting this history of cultural change and reinvention. We will aim to go to Denver Community Church, which worships in a former synagogue, the International Church of Cannabis, and the former Bethany Lutheran Church, which was decolonized to become the home of the Four Winds American Indian Council. Transportation will be by bus.

GREEN INITIATIVES

SBL and AAR foster not only excellence in the study of religion and biblical scholarship, but also environmental stewardship.

CARBON OFFSET PROGRAM

SBL and AAR are making it easy for members to purchase certified carbon offsets through the SBL and AAR Annual Meeting. By simply clicking a box during the registration process, members can choose to address their emissions by supporting renewable energy projects in the United States through a $16 carbon offset fee.

SBL and AAR selected NativeEnergy because of its commitment to reducing greenhouse gases, while also driving community level social and economic co-benefits through their carbon reduction projects. NativeEnergy helps assist Native American, farmer- owned, community-based renewable energy projects that create social, economic, and environmental benefits. These projects displace electricity from fossil fuels and reduce other greenhouse gas emissions. Your support helps bring these impactful projects to life!

SBL and AAR collected a total of $11,360.00 from the 2021 Hybrid Annual Meeting for this carbon offset program. To learn more about NativeEnergy, visit nativeenergy.com.

CONVENTION CENTER GREEN INITIATIVES

The Colorado Convention Center (CCC) in Downtown Denver is the premier sustainable meeting space. The CCC believes in using certifications as both a tool and guide in developing and implementing sustainability initiatives. Maintaining these certifications demonstrates an ongoing commitment to sustainability, continual improvement and transparency of its sustainability efforts. Current certifications include:

- ☞ LEED Existing Building — Operations and Maintenance Level GOLD
- ☞ ISO Standard 14001 — Environmental Management System
- ☞ The CDPHE Colorado Environmental Leadership Program (ELP) — Gold

Waste Management

The CCC's comprehensive waste management program focuses on identifying, reducing and diverting the various waste streams created by venue operations, attendees and clients. Components of this plan include a facility waste audit, as well as methods to reduce the amount of waste being created, manage inevitable waste and divert waste from landfills by means of reuse, repurposing, recycling and composting. Each year these efforts result in diverting nearly 50 percent of the waste produced from the landfill.

- ☞ Donations — The CCC reclaim room allows for events to donate bags and other leftover conference materials to various non-profits throughout the city.
- ☞ Recycling and composting — Single-stream recycling bins are placed at every landfill bin throughout the venue. In addition, compost collection bins are placed in lobbies and food functions, as well as in the back of the house kitchen and upon request by event organizers.
- ☞ Water fill stations — Water filling stations are located at every drinking fountain throughout the CCC to allow patrons to fill reusable water bottles and reduce single-use plastic water bottles.

Energy and Water Conservation

The CCC electrical and engineering departments work hard to reduce energy and water consumption through mindful scheduling, equipment retrofits and upgrades, and preventive maintenance.

- ☞ Solar array — In 2008, the CCC installed a 300kw rooftop solar array, which generates about 400,000 kWh annually.
- ☞ Daylighting — Colorado's 300 days of sunshine allow the center to turn off lights in the atriums during the daytime, reducing energy usage considerably.
- ☞ Lighting retrofits — All lights in the meeting rooms, lobbies, ballrooms and exhibit halls have been converted to LED.
- ☞ Native landscape — The xeriscape along 14th Street has reduced landscape irrigation by 75 percent.
- ☞ Water conservation — All restrooms have been retrofitted with low-flow toilets and urinals.

Air Quality

Clean air both inside and out of the venue is of the utmost priority. The CCC has several policies and technology in place to ensure the health of the building and its occupants.

- ✧ Engines Off! — The CCC adheres to the City and County of Denver's idling ordinance of 5 minutes or less. Signage is placed throughout the venue to remind drivers to turn their engines off.
- ✧ Bike parking — Bike racks are located at every entrance of the CCC for attendee use.
- ✧ Light rail — A light rail station is located on the property of the convention center.
- ✧ Walkability — The CCC is located within walking distance of more than 12,000 hotels rooms. The popular 16th Street Mall is two blocks away with a large variety of restaurants, shopping and entertainment options.
- ✧ HVAC air filters — The CCC continues to maintain and exceed LEED Certification IAQ requirements as the HVAC systems are fitted with MERV 8 pleated filters paired with Multi Sak filters equaling MERV 13 performance rate and MERV 13 pleated filters.
- ✧ Global Plasma Solutions (GPS) — GPS ionization units have been added to all air handler units (AHU) and heater pumps, giving the CCC 100 percent coverage with the ionization units. These new units pump ions into the air system, which travel throughout the system and attach to viruses and bacteria. This action kills the bacteria by removing their hydrogen or they agglomerate with allergens, dust and other particles allowing for the MERV 8+ & 13 filters to capture them.

Food and Beverage

Centerplate, the exclusive food and beverage caterer at the CCC and is committed to sustainability.

PROGRAM BOOK

Paper used in the Program Book is certified by the globally-recognized Sustainable Forest Initiative, which ensures that wood and paper products are from well-managed forests and is backed by a rigorous third party certification audit. Use of recycled paper equates to a 40 percent reduction in energy versus paper made with unrecycled pulp.

OPT-OUT OPTION

SBL and AAR offered registrants the choice to opt-out of receiving a Program Book in the mail or of having a Program Book printed for them.

T3 EXPO

SBL and AAR's event services contractor, T3 Expo, pursues environmental responsibility in everything they do. From their own supply chain and local sourcing model, to carpeting, graphics, freight, and exhibit construction, T3 works with partners and customers to raise environmental awareness, develop innovative solutions and establish best practices in the events industry in a effort to:

- ✧ Reduce energy consumption and waste
- ✧ Reuse inventory and graphics
- ✧ Use recyclable products/recycle
- ✧ Use products that contain post-consumer content

TECHNOLOGICAL INITIATIVES

SBL and AAR are committed to being on the cutting edge with innovative new event technology and to offering attendees an exceptional program experience.

We will again provide a Mobile Meeting Guide powered by Event Pilot. This mobile app provides members with a technically-reliable, intuitive, and functional solution. At no cost, this mobile app provides attendees with:

- ✧ The entire event program, including SBL, AAR, and Other Events sessions
- ✧ Exhibitor information, including an interactive Exhibit Hall map
- ✧ Maps of the Annual Meetings hotels
- ✧ Ability to add sessions and personal events to your Annual Meetings calendar
- ✧ Access to supplementary materials uploaded by presenters like handouts and full-text papers.

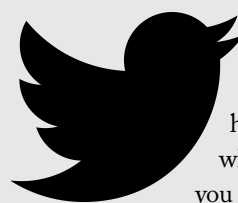

Attendees will be able to create and customize their own schedule, make notes about sessions, and share information and their schedule with colleagues and friends via built-in social networking. Because Event Pilot features an intuitive offline program that is native to Android, iPhone, iPad, and iPod Touch devices, there is no waiting for schedule downloads or web pages to load and no dealing with slow or nonexistent Wi-Fi connections. Schedule changes are downloaded in the background, allowing attendees immediate access to event information.

You can search for the app in the App Store for iOS or the Google Play store for Android using the keyword SBLAAR22.

BEST PRACTICES FOR SOCIAL MEDIA USE AT THE 2022 ANNUAL MEETING

SBL and AAR promote the academic study of religion and sacred texts across many channels: print, online, and the Annual Meeting. Social media outlets, especially “livetweeting,” can be an important means for continuing the conversation beyond the audience of an Annual Meeting session. These guidelines are intended to craft a forum that encourages an open discussion while maintaining the integrity of the scholar’s work.

1. Attendees are encouraged to live-tweet at the Annual Meeting using the official 2021 Annual Meeting hashtag (#sblaar22).
2. Program unit chairs are invited to create hash tags for their units.
3. Do not presume consent, and respect others’ preferences. Presenters may request that their presentation not be broadcast across social media. Similar to a presenter’s requests not to be filmed or recorded, attendees are asked to respect the presenters’ wishes.
4. Attribution is key. List the speaker’s name and presentation title; refer to a social media handle, if known.
5. Clearly define where the idea originated. Note direct quotes within quotation marks. Make it clear when you are summarizing an argument and when you respond with your own opinion or interpretation of it. Note when the presentation is over.
6. Be respectful, even if you disagree.
7. Keep the dialogue going—bring responses from social media into the meeting session

(e.g., ask questions posed to the author from the Twittersphere) and remember to use the meeting hashtag (#sblaar22) so you can see who is responding to the same session you are.

INSTAGRAM CONTEST

Join us once again for our Instagram contest during the 2022 Annual Meetings in Denver! Start looking for the items listed below, snap a photo with your phone, iPad or other device, and upload it to Instagram. Be sure to tag our Instagram account SBLAAR22 and use the hashtag #SBLAAR22. Winners will be chosen daily. Valuable prizes such as gift cards and 2023 Annual Meeting registrations will be available to the winners!

PHOTO CONTEST

1. Take a photo of the Exhibit Hall Entrance, Annual Meetings Tote Bag, Annual Meetings signage, or Program Book.
2. Take a photo with your favorite session author, presenter, or panelist.
3. Take a photo of you buying a book from one of our exhibitors.
4. Take a photo of your favorite snack, lunch or dinner you've had all day.
5. Networking matters. Introduce yourself to someone new and snap a selfie.
6. Take a photo of your favorite Denver landmark.
7. Take a selfie at a Sponsor's booth (for a list of sponsors see your Annual Meeting Program Book).
8. Take a shoeie (photo of your shoes) with your favorite with your favorite convention center or hotel carpet.
9. Take a selfie with the Big Blue Bear.
10. Are you using your meeting bags or lanyards from previous years? If so, tag us in a photo.

Not sure what Instagram is or how to upload it? Check it out at Instagram.com or upload it to your mobile device through Google Play or iTunes App Store. And follow us on Instagram at #SBLAAR22 to see updates throughout the meeting.

ACCESSIBILITY INFORMATION

DISABILITY AND ASSISTANCE

SBL and AAR members with disabilities or any attendees who may have difficulty getting around the meeting are encouraged to note this on your registration form, as well as on the housing section of registration, if applicable. SBL and AAR will make every reasonable attempt to provide accommodations and assistance, whether by arranging services such as sign language interpreters, assigning accessible hotel rooms, or through the SBL and AAR taxi reimbursement policy.

Please contact information@annual-meetings.org if you have any questions.

ACCESSABILITY AT THE COLORADO CONVENTION CENTER (CCC)

The Colorado Convention Center has provided information regarding ADA services within the facility at this link <https://denverconvention.com/attend-an-event/accessibility-services>.

ACCESS TO AND BETWEEN THE CCC AND MAIN HOTELS

Most SBL and AAR sessions will be held in five locations—the Colorado Convention Center and Hyatt Regency, though other events may be placed in the following hotels: Embassy Suites, Hilton Denver City Center, Hilton Garden Inn, Hyatt House and Hyatt Place, Sheraton Denver Downtown and Sonesta Denver.

The Embassy Suites is the closest hotel, located across the street from the Convention Center. The Hyatt Regency, Hyatt Place, Hyatt House and Hilton Garden Inn are also nearby hotels.

TAXI REIMBURSEMENT

SBL and AAR will reimburse attendees with disabilities for the cost of a private taxi or ride-share service to travel between official meeting locations, if needed. To receive the reimbursement, please submit all receipts with a letter detailing the nature of your disability, your departure point, and your destination. Only travel between official Annual Meeting locations (i.e., hotels and convention center) will be covered, and only from Nov. 19–23. Questions may be directed to information@annual-meetings.org.

WHEELCHAIR OR ELECTRIC SCOOTER RENTAL

Attendees who wish to rent a wheelchair or electric scooter for use during the Annual Meeting are encouraged to contact the UPS Store Wheelchair and Scooter Rental (720) 749-3956 to reserve your wheelchair or electric scooter. They can make arrangements to have equipment delivered to your hotel or to the Colorado Convention Center.

ONSITE ACCESSIBILITY ISSUES

Should you encounter an accessibility issue at the Annual Meeting, please notify the hotel's front desk so they can get the issue resolved. You may also report the problem at the SBL & AAR Registration Desk, or email information@annual-meetings.org.

ASL INTERPRETER SERVICES

SBL and AAR provide interpreter services for attendees who request ASL interpretation in advance of the meeting. To request interpreter service, contact AAR at annualmeeting@aarweb.org no later than October 1, to ensure that SBL and AAR have sufficient time to arrange for appropriate interpreters. If members inform SBL and AAR about their anticipated attendance at particular sessions, SBL and AAR staff will coordinate with presenters and session presiders to secure advance copies of papers for interpreters.

ASSISTED LISTENING SYSTEM

We can equip any conference meeting room with an assisted listening system. SBL and AAR will provide receivers to attendees who request them in advance. If you would like to make use of this service, please email information@annual-meetings.org by October 15.

MATERIALS IN ALTERNATIVE FORMAT

Primary Meeting Locations

Attendees who need materials in alternative formats should contact the presenters directly. If you need contact information, please email SBL and AAR at information@annual-meetings.org. If members inform SBL and AAR about their needs and their anticipated attendance at particular sessions, SBL and AAR staff will do their best to coordinate with presenters and session presiders to facilitate the availability of handouts or other session materials in alternative formats.

MEETING ROOM ACCESSABILITY

All sessions at the Annual Meetings 2022 are accessible to attendees using wheelchairs or scooters. Meeting room chairs will be arranged to ensure two open spaces for attendees using wheelchairs.

SIGHTED GUIDE OR MOBILITY ASSISTANCE

Attendees who need a sighted guide or other mobility assistance to navigate the annual meeting should email information@annual-meetings.org by October 15.

VOLUNTEER TO ASSIST YOUR COLLEAGUES

Are you able to devote a few hours of your time at the annual meeting to assist a colleague? Please contact information@annual-meetings.org if you are able to serve as a sighted guide, or to provide mobility assistance during a portion of the annual meeting.

HEALTH AND SAFETY REQUIREMENTS

The Annual Meetings 2022 is committed to creating an event experience where our participants, partners, publishers, staff and volunteers can safely and effectively conduct business, network and learn. The Annual Meetings 2022 will follow current CDC guidelines at the time of the meeting, as well as any applicable protocols that may be required by our venues, state and local governments.

- ☞ Colorado Convention Center Building Air Health: The CCC is committed to researching and adding technology and processes that will keep all at the CCC safe and well.
- ☞ Clean Hands: Hand Sanitizers will be placed in all public spaces, meeting room corridors, show floor areas and food and beverage areas. Participants are encouraged to regularly wash and disinfect their hands.
- ☞ Masks/Face Coverings: As of March 2022, there is not a mask mandate in Denver, Colorado. We will continue to monitor this and if a change happens we will update our registered attendees regarding new requirements. However, we understand and respect the fact that some Annual Meetings 2022 attendees may wish to wear masks. We want all attendees to feel comfortable and safe and we welcome your choice to wear a mask. Face coverings are still highly recommended for those who are immunocompromised and those who are unvaccinated or not fully vaccinated.

For additional resources and tips for attendees traveling during COVID, please visit the <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/travelers/travel-during-covid19.html>.

For additional resources regarding health and safety measures at the Colorado Convention Center, <https://denverconvention.com/coronavirus-information>.

GETTING AROUND THE 2022 ANNUAL MEETINGS

HOW TO USE THE PROGRAM BOOK

This Program Book contains the scheduled times for all sessions. All times are listed in Mountain Standard Time (MST UTC-7). We anticipate that there will be some changes from the time of this publication until the Virtual Annual Meeting. The most up-to-date information on all sessions will be reflected in the AAR and SBL Online Program Books, in the Mobile App, and in the Online Planner.

All SBL, AAR, Related Scholarly Organizations (RSOs), Program Affiliates, and Other Events sessions are listed in this Program Book. The sessions have been divided into three sections:

- ☞ SBL sessions (designated by an S#) and SBL Program Affiliate sessions (designated by a P#)
- ☞ AAR sessions (designated by an A#) and AAR RSO sessions (designated by a P#)
- ☞ Other Events sessions (designated by an M#)

There is some overlap between the SBL's Program Affiliates and AAR's RSOs, and in these cases, the sessions are listed in both the SBL and AAR sections.

The A/S/P/M numbers will tell you the date and time of a session. For example, S19-102 is an SBL session that occurs on Saturday, November 19 and begins before noon MST (UTC-7).

Session Number Key:

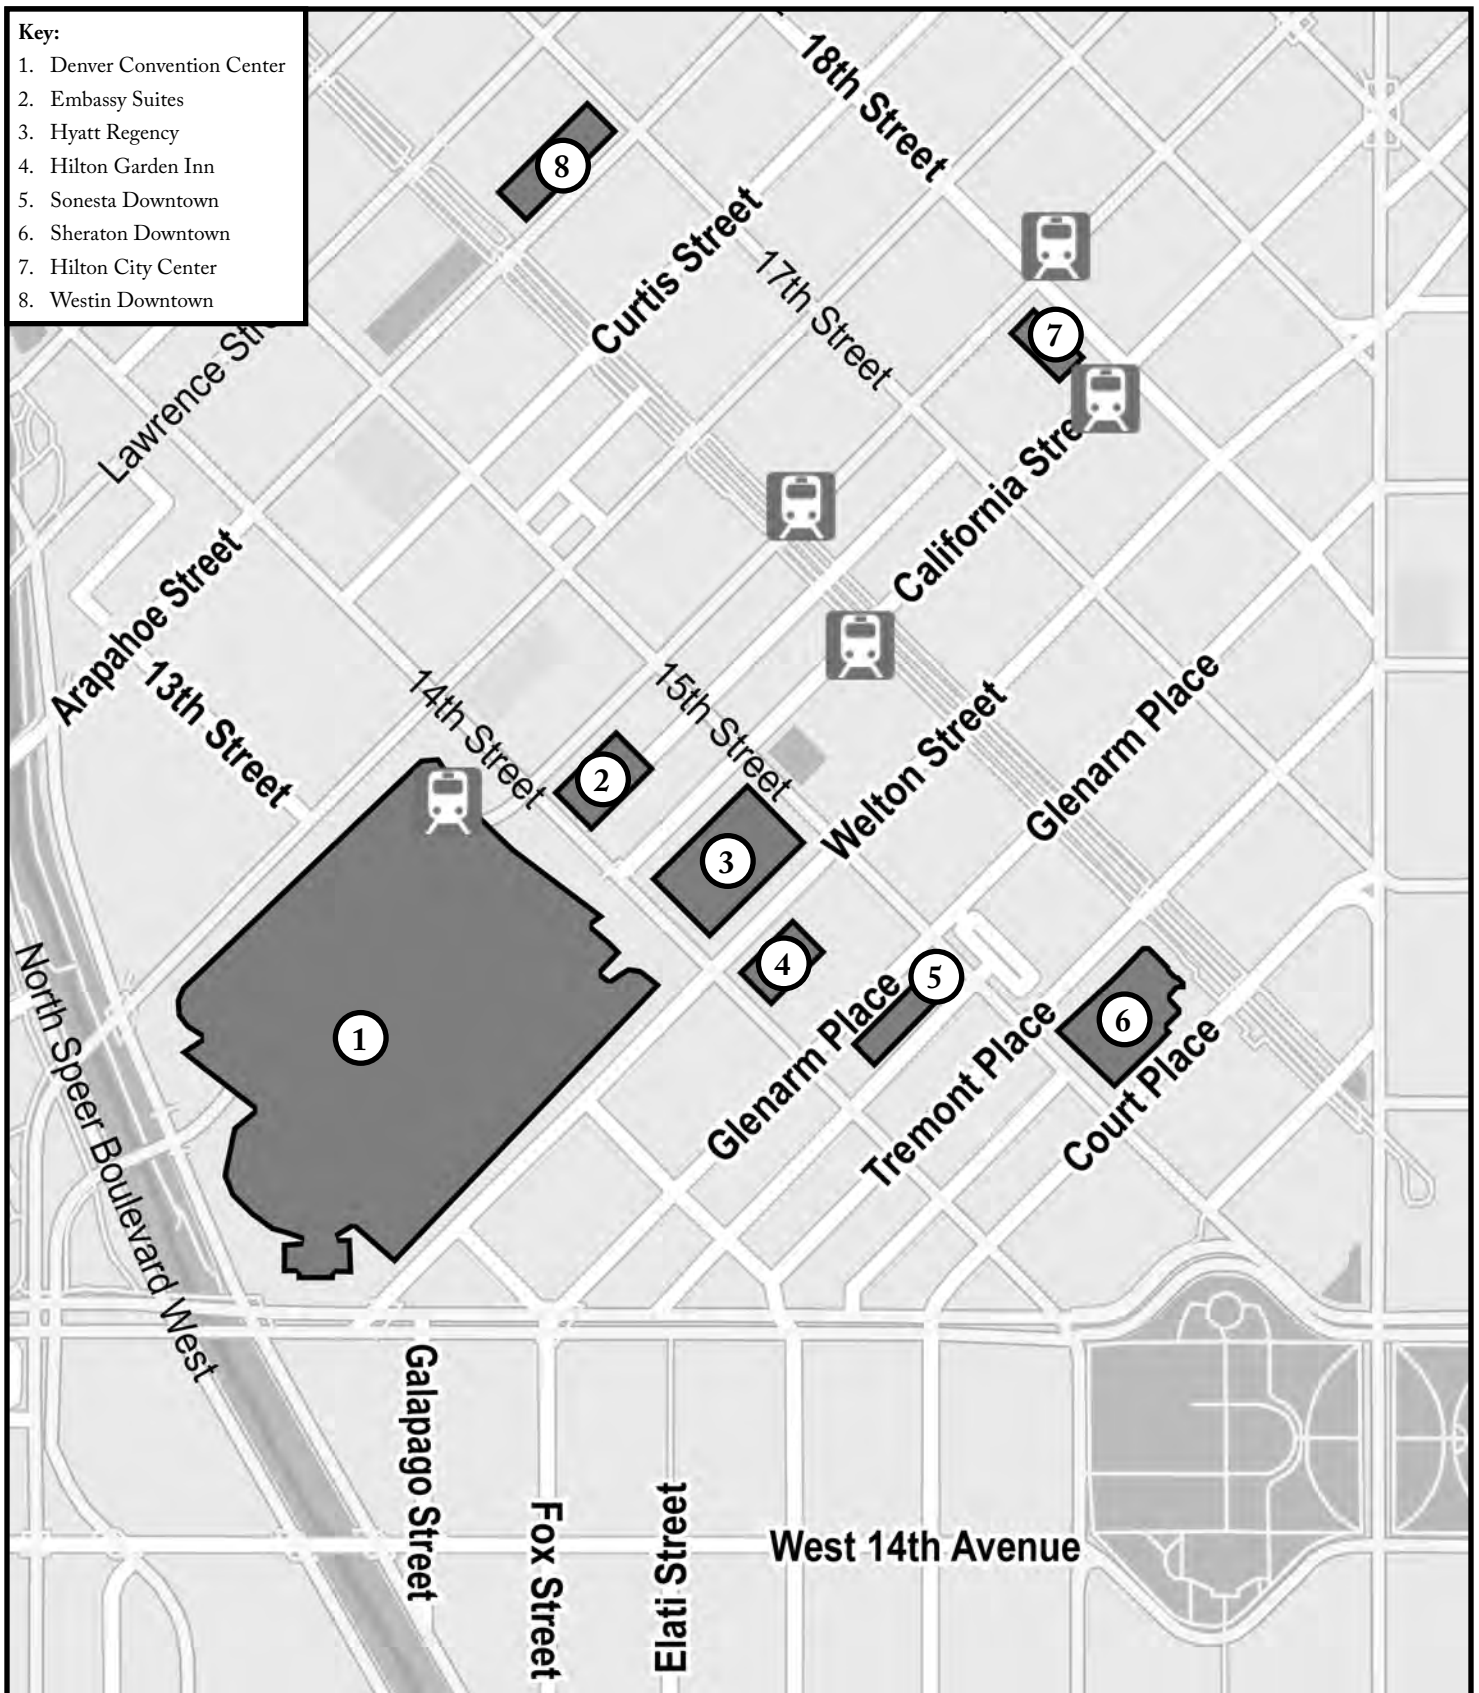

100–199	Begin before 12:00 PM (MST UTC-7)
200–299	Begin between 12:00 PM–2:59 PM (MST UTC-7)
300–399	Begin between 3:00 PM–4:59 PM (MST UTC-7)
400–499	Begin between 5:00 PM–6:59 PM (MST UTC-7)
500–599	Begin after 7:00 PM (MST UTC-7)

Each page has a tab marker on the side indicating the dates located on that page. Additionally, a gray header bar denotes start times.

Symbols located adjacent to the session number indicate sessions which highlight special subjects in the AAR program. A symbol key is provided on the bottom of each even numbered page.

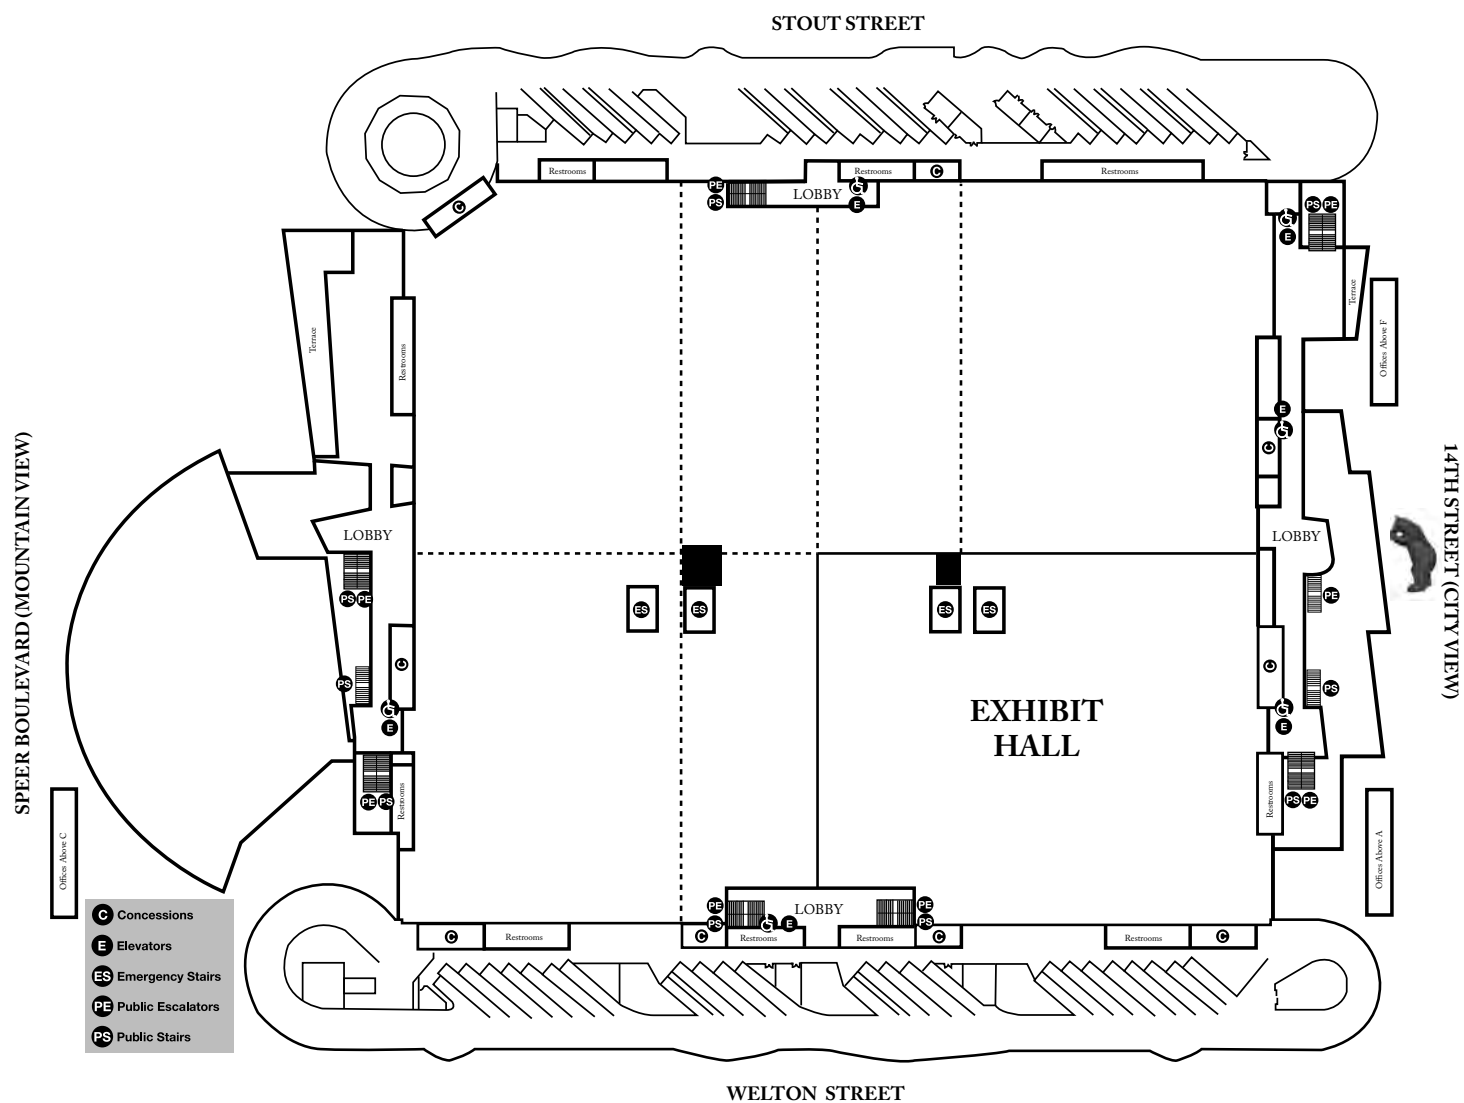

Please remember to bring your Program Book to Denver with you. We will have a very limited supply for those who forget their books at home or in their hotel room.

MEETING ROOMS

The mission of the Society of Biblical Literature is to foster biblical scholarship. This mission is accomplished through seven strategic goals:

- ❧ Collaborate with educational institutions and other appropriate organizations to support biblical scholarship and teaching
- ❧ Develop resources for diverse audiences, including students, religious communities and the general public
- ❧ Encourage study of biblical literature and its cultural contexts
- ❧ Facilitate broad and open discussion from a variety of perspectives
- ❧ Offer members opportunities for mutual support, intellectual growth, and professional development as teachers and scholars
- ❧ Organize congresses for scholarly exchange
- ❧ Publish biblical scholarship

These strategic goals are, in turn, pursued through a number of SBL programs and initiatives under the leadership of SBL volunteers and staff.

PROGRAMS AND INITIATIVES

Congresses

The Society's meetings bring together scholars from around the world to foster biblical scholarship by:

- ❧ showcasing the latest in biblical research
- ❧ fostering collegial contacts
- ❧ advancing research
- ❧ highlighting a wide range of professional issues

Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting, held yearly in North America, is the largest international gathering of biblical scholars in the world. Each meeting highlights the study of the Bible, archaeology, related languages and literatures, theology, religion, and contemporary issues such as the Bible in American public education. The Annual Meeting also features the world's largest exhibit of books and digital resources for biblical studies—all of which are also for sale at this congress. Members benefit from the meetings of other organizations that convene at the same time.

International Meeting

The International Meeting is held annually outside North America. Drawing between 500 and 1000 attendees from over 40 countries, the size and varying locales of this meeting provide a unique and intimate forum for scholarly discourse across continents. The program draws attention to the regional interests of biblical scholarship, both in our host institution and as represented in the institutions of our attendees. The meeting usually takes place between the beginning of July and the middle of August.

SBL Press

SBL Press offers a wide variety of resources for biblical studies specialists as well as students in colleges, universities, and seminaries; leaders in church and synagogue settings; and members of the general public. Books published include major reference works, commentaries, text editions and translations, scholarly monographs, tools for teaching and research, and works of general interest. In addition, SBL Press serves as the exclusive distributor of all Brown Judaic Studies titles. The Journal of Biblical Literature is one of the oldest and most distinguished journals in biblical scholarship, while the online Review of Biblical Literature offers the most comprehensive review of biblical studies publications. Finally, SBL Press also sponsors the online journal TC: A Journal of Biblical Textual Criticism and the Online Critical Pseudepigrapha.

PROFESSIONS

Career Resources

The Society provides resources for employment and professional development information in a variety of ways. Through its Annual Meeting, the Society offers career development and job listing and interview resources, with which employers are able to list job openings online for member access, and members are able to register to display their Curriculum Vitae and interview with employers. Jobs are posted year-round at the Employment Services website: www.aarsbl.org. The societies also offer helpful events such as panel reviews of pertinent topics that focus on the "how to" of the application and job-interview process.

Professional Development Committee

The SBL Professional Development Committee addresses the variety of needs that arise throughout the career life cycle of all the society's members. Its major responsibilities are to:

- ✧ focus on all aspects of the career landscape and life cycle, including the ways in which our members' identities and personal lives intersect with their careers
- ✧ develop resources for members in all institutional locations
- ✧ educate members regarding professional issues, especially when new concerns arise (e.g., the rise of adjunct positions over tenure track, cultural taxation, retirement planning in a depressed economy)
- ✧ advocate with other organizations on behalf of the interests and needs of members

International Cooperation Initiative Committee

The Society's International Cooperation Initiative (ICI) was launched in 2007, and each year SBL has seen growth in participation and interest from scholars and students from all over the globe. Since the initial organizational meeting in Vienna, ICI has established an online depository of published resources available freely to anyone in ICI countries; initiated two online, open-access monograph series; set up a communications network of liaisons; sponsored a database of scholars to facilitate scholarly exchange, mentoring programs, and possibilities for collaborative teaching; provided over four hundred students and scholars in ICI countries with special rates for SBL membership; and maintained a calendar of events covering biblical studies and related conferences all over the world.

ICI Online Books

The Online Book depository now has over six hundred titles from SBL Press and our publishing partners: Brown Judaic Studies, Catholic Biblical Association, Fortress Press, Gorgias Press, Instituto Multidisciplinario de Historia y Ciencias Humanas (IMHICIHU), Sheffield Phoenix Press, Universidad Católica Argentina, Westminster John Knox, and Wiley-Blackwell.

Open-Access Monograph Series

Ancient Near East Monographs (ANEM) is a copublication effort between SBL Press and the Centro de Estudios de Historia del Antiguo Oriente at the Universidad Católica Argentina. The series currently has twenty-eight published titles available online, with twenty-six of the titles available through print-on-demand.

International Voices in Biblical Studies (IVBS) is guided by an editorial board of international scholars. The series is designed to provide a venue for publication and distribution of scholarly work from all areas of the world, particularly to make the excellent scholarship from underresourced areas available to the more traditional centers of biblical scholarship. The fourteen titles published to date are all available online or through print-on-demand.

ICI Liaison Network

In order to facilitate worldwide communications, the Liaison Network engages scholars in ICI countries to facilitate the two-way flow of information pertaining to SBL and global biblical scholarship. A monthly newsletter serves the ICI liaisons and other interested parties by providing updates to conferences, publications, and other SBL news.

ICI Scholarly Exchange

SBL hosts two databases that allow scholars, students, and institutions to establish contact and make arrangements for various types of scholarly exchange. Members have discovered opportunities to teach in other countries and have found creative ways to use technology in order to share teaching experiences with classrooms on other continents.

Status of Women in the Profession Committee

The Status of Women in the Profession Committee encourages the participation of women in all areas of biblical studies. In pursuit of this mandate, the committee focuses its efforts in the areas of mentoring, networking, and opening biblical studies to greater participation by women.

Students in the Profession Committee

Started in 2005, the purpose of this committee is to coordinate student participation across all Society activities, committees, and programs in an effort to foster greater opportunities for student participation and leadership development. The explicit goals of this group are to:

- ✧ facilitate a greater connection between students and the Society with a view toward lifetime membership, volunteer involvement, and leadership
- ✧ provide resources and programming specifically geared toward student members
- ✧ to develop and groom the next generation of leaders

Underrepresented Racial and Ethnic Minorities Committee

The SBL Underrepresented Racial and Ethnic Minorities in the Profession Committee (CUREMP) was constituted to assess the status and encourage the participation of underrepresented racial and ethnic minorities in all professional areas of biblical studies. It has long supported the recruitment and mentoring of racial and ethnic minority students from among the African American, Asian, Hispanic, and Native American populations.

AWARDS

SBL offers the following awards. Award winners will be featured in the annual Society Report.

A. R. Pete Diamond Award for Integrative Scholarship

The A. R. Pete Diamond Award for Integrative Scholarship supports junior scholars demonstrating innovative approaches in biblical studies that advance methodological work at the intersection of historical criticism, critical theory, and cultural studies. In order to compete for the award a paper of publishable quality must be submitted. It must not have been previously published or accepted for publication; however, a paper may be submitted that is under review by a journal or other academic press if a decision to publish has not been reached at the time of submission. If the paper was delivered at an annual or international SBL meeting, it must exhibit significant revision, as demonstrated by submission of both the original draft and the revision. There is a $1,000 monetary award.

Bernadette J. Brooten Award for Scholarship in Gender, Sexuality, and Embodiment

The primary goal for the Bernadette J. Brooten Award is to support and encourage early career researchers developing innovative approaches to the critical study of gender, sexuality, and/or embodiment in relation to biblical texts and traditions (broadly cast), especially with projects that foreground feminist, womanist, queer, and, or, as trans approaches.

David Noel Freedman Award for Excellence and Creativity in Hebrew Bible Scholarship

The primary goal of the David Noel Freedman Award for Excellence and Creativity in Hebrew Bible Scholarship is to encourage the finest scholarship in biblical studies. In order to compete for the award a paper of publishable quality must be submitted. It must not have been previously published or accepted for publication; however, a paper may be submitted that is under review by a journal or other academic press if a decision to publish has not been reached at the time of submission. If the paper was delivered at an annual or international SBL meeting, it must exhibit significant revision, as demonstrated by submission of both the original draft and the revision. There is a $1,000 monetary award.

Paul J. Achtemeier Award for New Testament Scholarship

The primary goal of the Paul J. Achtemeier Award for New Testament Scholarship is to stimulate the finest and most penetrating work in New Testament studies. In order to compete for the award a paper of publishable quality must be submitted. It must not have been previously published or accepted for publication; however, a paper may be submitted that is under review by a journal or other academic press if a decision to publish has not been reached at the time of submission. If the paper was delivered at an annual or international SBL meeting, it must exhibit significant revision, as demonstrated by submission of both the original draft and the revision. There is a $1,000 monetary award.

Regional Scholars Awards

The Regional Scholars' Program has been developed by the Society of Biblical Literature's Council of Regional Coordinators to recognize promising younger scholars in the field of biblical studies. Its objective is to encourage their intellectual development through a mentoring program and to provide practical assistance in securing a place to present their work at the Society's Annual Meeting.

To qualify for the SBL Regional Scholars Program scholars should be at least ABD and no more than four years past the receipt of their Ph.D. Women and underrepresented minorities are encouraged to apply.

The Richards Award for Public Scholarship

The Richards Award honors members of the Society of Biblical Literature who have demonstrated excellence in public scholarship. It seeks to recognize the powerful role of sacred texts in society and how those texts shape culture. The award is given in honor of Kent Richards and on behalf his mother, Eva Richards, who made a difference in seeking the common good, always encouraging the relevance of religion scholarship.

SBL International Travel Awards

The SBL International Travel Awards offer opportunities to current SBL members outside North America to attend the Annual or International Meeting, to participate in the program, to enhance their professional development, and to build their network with fellow scholars. These grants help facilitate the work of Program Units and the International Cooperation Initiative ("ICI"). These grants are intended to support underrepresented and underresourced scholars. As such, preference will be given to women, people of historically underrepresented ethnicities, and members from ICI-qualifying countries. A key criterion is an applicant's demonstrable financial need.

Four International Travel Award Panels (ITAP) administer the awards each year, serving four geographic regions:

- ☞ Africa and Middle East
- ☞ Asia and Pacific
- ☞ Eastern Europe
- ☞ Latin America and Caribbean

Each ITAP administers $3,000 in awards in each region.

Society of Biblical Literature — De Gruyter Prize for Biblical Studies and Reception History

The De Gruyter Prize for Biblical Studies and Reception History promotes the study of the reception history of the Bible and aims to highlight the broad impact of the Bible in a wide variety of historical contexts and cultural settings. SBL is grateful to De Gruyter for investing in this growing area of research and teaching, one that also cultivates interdisciplinary studies in the humanities.

Beginning in 2020, the award will be for papers in two categories: Textual Culture and Reception of the Bible, and Material and Visual Culture and Reception of the Bible. De Gruyter will support each category with an annual cash prize of $750. The awarded papers will be published in the Journal of the Bible and its Reception. In addition to being published, the awarded papers will be delivered at the SBL Annual Meeting followed by a panel discussion.

Status of Women in the Profession Committee Mentor Award

Each year at the SBL Annual Meeting, CSWP honors women who have been excellent mentors to women in the field. These mentors have provided invaluable guidance, advice, and encouragement. They serve as role models and assist other women in navigating career choices, building professional networks, and developing strategies for work-life balance. CSWP honors mentors in order to recognize their contributions and to encourage mentoring relationships. If you would like to nominate a mentor, please send your nomination with a descriptive letter of endorsement to the chairs of the committee. Nominations must be received by May 1st. Nominations received after the deadline will be considered for the following year.

The Underrepresented Racial and Ethnic Minorities in the Profession Committee's Outstanding Mentor Award

Many biblical scholars of color provide exceptional mentoring service to other scholars of color in the context of doctoral programs and/or in less formal but significant ways. They provide invaluable advice at various stages of one's career, help develop important networks, offer support in the process of navigating intricacies of the guild, and serve as role models. CUREMP seeks to honor such outstanding mentors.

If you wish to nominate someone for this award, please send their name along with a letter of nomination to the chair of the committee. The letter should describe the ways the nominee helped your professional advancement and why you think the nominee stands out as an exceptional mentor. You are welcome to nominate your current or former doctoral advisor or someone who has mentored you in less formal ways. Anyone can nominate but the nominees should have been scholars/faculty members at the time of mentoring. The committee might supplement nominations from its historic and ongoing work as needed. Deadline is July 31. Nominations received after the deadline will be considered for the following year.

SBL PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS (S19-402)

Ethics in Paul and Paul in Ethics

Saturday, November 19, 7:00 PM–8:00 PM Hyatt Regency (HR) - Centennial D (Third Level)

Musa Dube, Emory University, Presiding

Adela Yarbro Collins, Buckingham Professor of New Testament, Emerita, Yale University Divinity School

Adela grew up in Seattle, Washington and began a pre-medical major at the University of Portland in Oregon in 1963. She spent her sophomore year on a study abroad program in Salzburg, Austria and fell in love with the humanities. After that year she transferred to Pomona College in Claremont, California and graduated in 1967 with a double major in Religion and History. After graduation she spent a year studying in Tübingen, Germany, taking seminars in New Testament and hearing lectures in theology and philosophy.

From Tübingen she went to Harvard and began a Ph.D. program administered by the Committee on the Study of Religion. In 1975 she defended a dissertation on the “Combat Myth in the Book of Revelation,” directed by Dieter Georgi.

Her first teaching position was at a Presbyterian seminary, McCormick Theological Seminary in Chicago. They had a distinguished history of involvement in archaeological field work, so she was able to take a group of students to participate in the excavations at Caesarea on the Sea in Israel. She began at McCormick as an instructor in 1973 and was inaugurated as a full professor in 1982. In 1985, she accepted a position as Professor of New Testament in the Department of Theology at the University of Notre Dame and taught there until 1991. In that year she was appointed Professor of New Testament at the University of Chicago and taught there until 2000. In that year she was appointed Buckingham Professor of New Testament at the Yale University Divinity School. She taught there until her retirement in 2015.

The University of Oslo awarded her an honorary degree in 1994. She received a Fellowship for University Teachers from the National Endowment for the Humanities in 1995–1996 to support her work on the commentary on Mark in the Hermeneia series. She was president of the Society of New Testament Studies in 2010–2011. The University of Zurich conferred an honorary degree on her in 2015. She was the first woman to preside over the Colloquium Biblicum Lovaniense, the 64th, in 2015 in Leuven, Belgium. Its topic was New Perspectives on the Book of Revelation. She was elected to the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 2020.

She has a book in press:

Collected Essays on the Gospel according to Mark (Mohr Siebeck)

Her previously authored books include the following:

Paul Transformed: The Reception of Paul and His Letters in Antiquity (2022)

SBL PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT POLICY

The members of the SBL constitute a community of scholars dedicated to promoting the critical investigation of biblical literature and history, together with other related literature, by the exchange of scholarly research in published form and in public forum.

While freedom of inquiry is at the heart of this enterprise, such freedom carries with it the responsibility of professional conduct. As a learned society, the SBL requires professional conduct of its members as they exchange scholarly research in SBL publications and when they convene at SBL meetings and programs.

Professional conduct includes, but is not limited to, conduct based on respect for others which does not in any way exploit power and/or status differences such as those that exist between faculty and students, between senior and junior colleagues, between employers and those seeking employment, or between those who grant access to publication or presentation and those who seek such access. It also includes conduct based on respect in peer to peer relationships. Professional conduct is free of all forms of harassment and discrimination.

Discrimination means a distinction, whether intentional or not, relating to personal characteristics of an individual or group, which has the effect of imposing burdens, obligations, or disadvantages on such individual or group not imposed on others; or which withholds or limits access to opportunities, benefits and advantages available to other members of the SBL. Discrimination on the basis of race, ancestry, place of origin, color, ethnic group, citizenship, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, creed, age, marital/family status, or any other characteristic protected by law is prohibited by SBL in all of its sanctioned activities (including regional, annual, and international meetings, sponsored events and programmatic activities, and committee and editorial board meetings).

Harassment may be defined as vexatious comment or conduct in relation to a person or group of persons on the basis of personal characteristics (i) which has the effect or purpose of creating a hostile or intimidating environment; or (ii) which has the effect or purpose of offending or demeaning a person or group of persons; or (iii) which functions implicitly or explicitly to limit participation in a professional program, activity, or opportunity. It is also the case that the victim of harassment can be anyone affected by the offensive conduct, not just the individual at whom the conduct is directed. In other words, what one or two persons may consider joking around may be unwelcome to and offensive to a bystander.

Sexual harassment includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal comment or physical conduct of a sexual nature by a person who knows or ought reasonably to know that such conduct is unwanted, including situations in which (i) the request or conduct involves any implied or expressed promise of professional reward for complying; or (ii) the request or conduct involves any implied or expressed threat of reprisal or denial of opportunity for refusing to comply; or (iii) the request or conduct results in what reasonably may be perceived as a hostile or intimidating environment. Such examples are illustrative, not exhaustive. Sexual harassment does not refer to occasional compliments of a socially acceptable nature or consensual personal and social relationships without a discriminatory effect. It refers to behavior that reasonably situated persons would regard as not welcome and as personally intimidating, hostile, or offensive.

The SBL is committed to the creation and maintenance of a discrimination- and harassment-free environment in all of its sanctioned activities. The professional conduct of all members who participate in such activities is essential for preserving this standard. SBL is also committed to preventing harassment by or toward its employees and third parties involved in its activities, including contractors, vendors, volunteers, or guests.

Any person who has experienced a serious verbal threat or any physical assault should contact law enforcement officials immediately.

Any person who desires to report a possible violation of the SBL Professional Conduct Policy at an SBL sanctioned event should promptly contact the SBL Executive Director, the Chair of SBL Council, or the Professional Conduct Committee Chair. SBL has established Professional Conduct Investigation Procedures that provide guidelines for gathering information, maintaining confidentiality to the extent possible, reaching an initial determination, allowing for an appeal, and determining disciplinary action. SBL will carefully investigate all complaints according to these guidelines. No individual will be retaliated against for making a complaint or assisting with the investigation of a complaint.

Anyone who is found to have engaged in discrimination or any form of harassment will be subject to disciplinary action, which may include, but is not limited to, reprimand and/or suspension or termination of the individual's membership and/or participation in current or future SBL operated, sponsored or affiliated events.

This policy was approved by the SBL Council November 2015.

PROGRAM SESSIONS

Program listings in the printed program book are preliminary. All listings should be confirmed against the online program book or the app/desktop planner.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 17

P17-201

Network for Vocation in Undergraduate Education (NetVUE)

2:00 PM–5:00 PM

Sheraton Downtown (SD) - Governor's Square 12 (Plaza Tower - Concourse Level)

Theme: Vocation and Catastrophe: A NetVUE Pre-Conference (Session One)

Over the last few years, the world has experienced a global health pandemic, extreme polarization along lines of race and class, an increase in armed violence, and a surge of climate-related disasters. How have these events and trends altered conversations with undergraduate students about vocation and calling? How are students, staff, and faculty members affected by a sense of impending catastrophe? This event builds on NetVUE gatherings at AAR/SBL meetings in 2019 and 2021 (focusing on interreligious conversations and issues of justice). As always, the event will include panel presentations, book discussions, and interactive conversations, as well as opportunities for socializing and networking. Attendees of the AAR/SBL Annual Meeting are invited to arrive in Denver a day or two early for this pre-conference gathering.

Theme: Cognitive Strategies for Identifying Viewpoint in Biblical Texts

Because cognition and therefore language are embodied, language prompts construals that are viewpointed. In this interactive workshop, cognitive linguist Eve Sweetser, Ph.D. and Professor of Linguistics at UC Berkeley, will discuss how viewpoint operates in language. Following her introduction will be short presentations on viewpoint in biblical uses of prepositions; verbal tense, aspect, mood, and person; metaphor and metonymy; and characterization. Biblical texts will be provided for small- and large-group work. We also encourage everyone to bring examples related to the topics listed.

Theme: Hebrews and the Pauline Tradition

This research group explores the relationship between Hebrews and the Pauline tradition. While Hebrews must be able to speak on its own terms, historical and canonical imperatives call for it to be read alongside Paul's letters. This year, we invited papers that engaged with specific texts or themes in Hebrews and the Pauline Epistles. Theme: Asian-American Biblical Interpretation: Evangelical Voices

Theme: Asian American Theology and Evangelicalism

Our session will consist of a panel discussion of invited speakers and respondents from the areas of biblical studies, theology, and practical theology to address the tensions and opportunities that Asian American scholars face in evangelical contexts. They will address the tensions and opportunities they experience within their academic disciplines, social-cultural communities, ecclesial contexts, and vocational journeys and share their perspective on the possibilities and pitfalls facing Asian American evangelical theologians.

The reviewers' papers will be available on the IBR website after October 25th under the Research Groups tab at www.ibr-bbr.org (IBR Member login required). Attendees are encouraged to read the papers in advance though drop-ins are welcome. Non-IBR members are welcome to attend. For further information, please contact Milton Eng (miltoneng@thirdspaceaa.org) or Max Lee (mlee1@Northpark.edu).

It is also hoped that our research group will provide opportunities for mentoring younger and early career evangelical Asian American biblical scholars.

Theme: Early Historical Books (Joshua-Kings)

The "Early Historical Books (Joshua-Kings)" Research Group is focused on the Old Testament historical books that are set in the pre-exilic period, including the so-called deuteronomistic history as well as the book of Ruth. Emphasis is placed on historical-cultural and literary-theological approaches to interpretation. In keeping with our vision to facilitate research on leadership and authority in Joshua-Kings, we had an open call for papers on administrative, military, or cultic personnel/titles. For 2022, we had an open call for papers on messengers, prophets/prophesy, oracles, or divinatory devices. Theme: The Book of the Twelve Prophets in Biblical Scholarship

This year we will begin a new topic on "Change and the Book of the Twelve." Prophets spoke and wrote with the purpose of eliciting responses from their audiences. This makes change one of the pivotal features of the prophetic phenomenon. Our research group wishes to explore this phenomenon as it pertains to the Book of the Twelve. Several questions might be asked. What kinds of change does the Twelve envision? What trajectories of change are traced in the Book of the Twelve? How is change engendered, and what role did prophets have in this? Who is targeted for change, and why? What are the political, social, economic, theological, and psychological dimensions of change? How do "characters" within the Twelve change? How does the concept of change inform an understanding of God?

How does it inform the depiction of the past and frame the depiction of the future? For more information, please contact Beth M. Stovell (bstovell@ambrose.edu), George Athas (George.athas@moore.edu.au), and Daniel Timmer (Daniel.timmer@prts.edu).

Theme: Difficult Texts in the Old Testament: A Workshop Approach

Each year this group will examine a difficult passage in the Old Testament from multiple angles. The session will be divided into two parts with Part I addressing exegesis and social and contextual analysis and Part II addressing intertextuality and biblical theology, along with ethics and teaching. Each part will begin with two brief (5-min) invited presentations to get the conversation started, but the bulk of the time will consist of a more collaborative and audience-driven discussion. In this session, we will examine Exodus 4:24–26. To facilitate a rich and stimulating dialogue, we strongly encourage attendees to examine the passage ahead of time, considering the questions posted on our web page <https://ibr-bbr.org/annual-meeting/research-groups/difficult-texts-in-the-old-testament-a-workshop-approach>. Theme: Staging the Bible: Is the Bible Fit for Theatre?

Scholars from various disciplines are invited to a networking session to engage each other on their research in the fields listed above; all scholars and practitioners interested in these areas are welcome! The in-person networking session will be preceded by a virtual Zoom conversation with Israeli theatre professor and director Shimon Levy (The Bible as Theatre, '00) on Monday, November 14th (8:00am EST, 3:00pm Tel Aviv, 12:00am Melbourne) which will include multiple performances of 1 Samuel 3.1–10 (in English by Bahat Calachi, as well performances in Hebrew and German) with framing comments by Professor Levy. This will be followed by a response from Jeff Barker, retired theater professor and playwright. Both Levy and Barker have extensive experience performing and staging biblical texts. To register for the pre-SBL Zoom session see this link: <https://fuller-edu.zoom.us/j/7MvuyhgzsoGNaXSpvWV7P2XCTATvsGcvrV>.

The in-person networking session will continue exploring the themes raised during the virtual Zoom session with Shimon Levy (attending the virtual session is not necessary to participate in-person!), while ample space will be made for networking among attendees. SBL Fetish and Fetishization in the Study of Religion

9:00 AM–11:30 AM

Convention Center (CC) - 102 (Street Level)

Sponsored by the Students in the Profession Committee.

This panel brings together several scholars of religion who are at various career stages to discuss how histories and theories of fetish and practices of fetishization have informed their research and pedagogy. As a roundtable discussion with an extended Q&A, this panel will explore what the field fetishizes, what fetishization has obscured, as well as how fetishization has informed our objects of study. Central to our discussion are the ways that fetishization is enmeshed with colonialism, race, gender and sexuality, modernity, media, and materialism. Both attendees familiar with the constructs, concepts, and consequences of fetishization and those with limited exposure will find the conversation stimulating for theorizing how we more thoughtfully approach the study of religion and our objects of study.

Jeremiah Coogan, University of Oxford, Respondent (20 min)

Discussion (30 min)

Jeremiah Coogan's monograph Eusebius the Evangelist (Oxford University Press, 2022) traces how the fourth-century scholar Eusebius of Caesarea employed novel textual technologies to create new possibilities of reading. For over a thousand years, the Eusebian apparatus shaped encounters with Gospel literature in the Middle East, Central Asia, North Africa, and Europe.

This review panel engages Coogan's monograph and discusses its broader implications for the study of Gospel literature, late antiquity, and the history of books and reading.

1:00 PM–3:30 PM

Convention Center (CC) - Mile High 1C (Lower Level)

Theme: Is Deuteronomy Law?

The Biblical Law and Book of Deuteronomy Program Units host this joint session of invited papers: "Is Deuteronomy Law?" The session explores the ways in which law and narrative interact in the Book of Deuteronomy.

Program listings in the printed program book are preliminary. All listings should be confirmed against the online program book or the app/desktop planner.

The laws themselves draw attention to their narrative qualities as they describe cases and prescribe outcomes. At times, they refer to national history. More broadly, how does consideration of the narrative context affect our understanding of what appears to be legislation? Indeed, in context, can it be called legislation at all?

SBL Joshua-Judges Section

1:00 PM–3:30 PM

Convention Center (CC) - 105 (Street Level)

Theme: The Book of Judges before the Judges (Judg 1:1–3:6)

The first chapter of Judges tells stories of conquest and settlement outside the framework of most of the book, as the tribes here are not led by chieftains, and there is no one overarching narrative framework. Chapter 2 tells the story of the angel at Bochim (vv. 1–5), then the repeat of Joshua's death scene (vv. 6–10). Following this the text lays out "the Judges scheme" (vv. 11–23) and then lists the remaining peoples (3:1–6). Only at 3:7 do we arrive at a story of what can properly be called "a judge," that of Othniel (though even this is skipped over in the brief survey at the end of LXX Joshua 24, which jumps directly to Eglon). How are we to understand these opening units, their relationship to each other, to the rest of the book, and finally to the larger DtrH or Enneateuchal corpus?

SBL Social Sciences and the Interpretation of the Hebrew Scriptures Section / Wisdom in Israelite and Cognate Traditions Section

1:00 PM–3:30 PM

Convention Center (CC) - 406 (Street Level)

Theme: Does Wisdom Have a Sense of Humor? Exploring Humor in Proverbs, Job, Ecclesiastes, and Related Literature

Is there humor in the Hebrew Bible? This fraught question has received intermittent scholarly engagement over the years achieving something of a consensus around texts like Esther, Jonah, and the Balaam narrative in Num 22–24. Perhaps surprisingly, however, the traditional Wisdom books have received little engagement from the perspective of humor theory despite their clear use of irony, wit, hyperbole, misdirection, and vivid imagery—incongruous elements ripe for such analysis. Moreover, humor is a universal feature of human societies and the Wisdom books are generally thought to address such core human concerns in a more culturally transferable manner than other books of the Hebrew Bible. This session will seek to initiate a discussion on the presence and purpose of humor in Proverbs, Job, Ecclesiastes, and related texts. Is humor a part of the sage's rhetorical and pedagogical strategy, can we discern it, and what purposes does it serve?

Theme: History of Biblical Interpretation

The History of Biblical Interpretation group focuses on recovering and examining the work of past male and female biblical interpreters with the aim of better understanding the methodologies, themes, and historical trajectories in the interpretation of biblical texts.

This year, our theme is "Reading Paul in the Reformation." We have invited three experts to give 20-minute presentations on male and female interpreters during the Reformation which will provide fodder for a robust time of discussion to follow. Inquiries about the session can be directed to Marion Taylor (m.taylor@utoronto.ca) or Andrew Witt (awitt@tyndale.ca), or visit the IBR website under the Research Groups tab (<https://www.ibr-bbr.org/>)

Theme: Crosscurrents in Majority World and Minority Theology

As Christianity continues to expand in the global South and East, demand has grown for thoughtful biblical hermeneutics and theological analysis that addresses the concerns of the Majority World as well as minority Christians. This study group aims to harness this promising moment by addressing themes central to Majority World and Minority biblical studies and theology that often find no place in western discussions around traditional theological loci. This year's session focuses on biblical and theological perspectives on Identity. For more information, please contact K. K. Yeo (kkyeo@garrett.edu) and Gene L. Green (Gene.Green@Wheaton.edu).

Theme: Uses and Abuses of Stones, Tablets, and Scrolls

The interaction among archaeological evidence (stones), extrabiblical texts (tablets), and scriptural witnesses (scrolls) is far from new. Yet new discoveries and new approaches, especially as they relate to the complex process of the formation of the Bible, call for continual reevaluations of previous scholarship.

Program listings in the printed program book are preliminary. All listings should be confirmed against the online program book or the app/desktop planner.

Recognizing constantly changing trends in scholarship, this panel aims to give space to some of the most current trends and ideas in relation to four major periods that left significant traces in the Bible and that had great impact on the literature, culture, politics, and religion of the ancient Near East: the Assyrian, Babylonian, Persian, and Greco-Roman periods. In this panel, speakers will probe the issues surrounding the formation of the Bible in conversation with each other and with articles in the recent publication Stones, Tablets and Scrolls: Periods of the Formation of the Bible (Mohr Siebeck, 2020).

S19-322

SBL Performance Criticism of the Bible and Other Ancient Texts Section

4:00 PM–6:30 PM

Hyatt Regency (HR) - Capitol 7 (Fourth Level)

Theme: Rhetoric and Performance of the Bible and other Ancient Texts

In this open session, we explore the relationship between rhetoric and performance. Biblical Performance Criticism is inherently interdisciplinary, synthesizing the insights of many critical methods to construct scenarios of ancient performances and reframing analysis of Biblical traditions in the context of oral/scribal cultures of Judaism and early Christianity. Rhetorical Criticism is a critical partner in understanding the composition, preparation, and delivery of these traditions.

S20-124

SBL Hebrew Scriptures and Cognate Literature Section / Qumran Section

9:00 AM–11:30 AM

Convention Center (CC) - 105 (Street Level)

Theme: The Concept of Authorship

Scholars of Hellenistic literature speak about the “Ascension of Authorship” (Wyrick 2004) in reference to new ideas of authorship, which began taking shape during the Hellenistic period. But this concept strikes interesting chords in the history of Mesopotamian literature and in Jewish writings of the Second Temple period, where new ideas about authors, their identities, and authorities formed. Both corpora boast long histories of prestigious and classic literature, which derived their authority from attributions to specific people and gods. In Mesopotamia, one finds a “list of kings and sages” (Lenzi 2008) invoking the names of key figures from the distant past and their writings, into the second millennium BCE. Ideas of divine authorship formed even earlier in the cuneiform corpus, with some omen texts considered to be authored by gods. These texts, in turn, were the most dominant objects for commentary. In Second Temple Judea, key figures were marked as prototypes of authors for various genres: first and foremost YHWH, but also Moses, David, Solomon, Enoch, and other primordial patriarchs (Najman 2008, Mroczek 2018). A thick web of pseudepigraphic attributions developed in that period, as well as the concept of commentary, with self-reflection about the authority of the text. The personalities of Moses and God as authors are entangled in such texts as the Temple Scroll and Rewritten Pentateuch. Yet the significance of divine authorship for the texts to be ascribed with “authority” remains to be investigated. This session aims to shed mutual light on questions of authorship from these radically different yet also somewhat parallel corpora.

SBL Qur'an and Biblical Literature Section

9:00 AM–11:00 AM

Hyatt Regency (HR) - Summit 26 (Fourth Level)

Theme: Qur'an and Bible: Exploring Methodologies and Approaches

This roundtable discussion will explore the way in the Bible and the Qur'an are studied together in the fields of Biblical Studies, Islamic Studies and Religious Studies. As well as discussing the state of the field in specific subject areas, and possible areas for development, the roundtable will also explore some of the methodological and ethical/theological issues that can arise from comparing and contrasting scriptures and how these are broached. A range of speakers will provide a short reflection on the way the Qur'an and Bible are studied in their subject domain, highlighting some questions or problems in their particular area, which will then develop into a broader conversation, involving everyone present in the room. The aim is to foster a sense of interdisciplinarity and an understanding of how scholars are engaging in comparative studies of the Qur'an and the Bible at the present time.

SBL Ancient Education: Social, Intellectual, and Material Contexts Consultation

1:00 PM–3:30 PM

Convention Center (CC) - 103 (Street Level)

Theme: Material Aspects of Religious Knowledge in Late Antiquity

The new program unit “Ancient Education: Social, Intellectual, and Material Contexts” invites conversation about the production and transmission of knowledge in the late ancient Mediterranean and Middle East. Rather than treating social networks, material artifacts, and curricular frameworks separately, we explore their manifold intersections and investigate their contexts and implications. The unit locates the production of religious knowledge within capacious social, intellectual, and material histories, crossing geographical, linguistic, and religious boundaries that often divide scholarly conversation.

This inaugural session brings together papers that creatively engage the materiality of spaces, bodies, texts, and other objects in the production, transmission, preservation, and/or destruction of religious knowledge in late antiquity, thereby expanding our understanding of both “religious knowledge” and “late antiquity”.

Network for Vocation in Undergraduate Education (NetVUE)

1:00 PM–3:30 PM

Convention Center (CC) - Mile High 3B (Lower Level)

Theme: Empowering Communities of Color: The Role of Faculty in Religious and Biblical Studies

Faculty members in religious and biblical studies have sometimes turned to the language of “vocation” and “calling” to help students to reflect on the future direction of their lives. But certain interpretations of these concepts can drift into individualistic and subjectivist modes, rather than supporting thriving communities and seeking the common good. Especially for students of color, the idea of vocation as a “hero’s journey” often fails to acknowledge the realities of their lives—whether within the university setting or outside it. Patrick Reyes takes on these issues directly in his recent book, The Purpose Gap: Empowering Communities of Color to Find Meaning and Thrive (Westminster John Knox, 2021). In this session, several scholars in religious and biblical studies will offer reflections on the book, to which the author will offer a response. Significant time will be allowed for questions and group conversation.

SBL Pseudepigrapha Section / Chronicles-Ezra-Nehemiah Section

1:00 PM–3:30 PM

Convention Center (CC) - 106 (Street Level)

Theme: Reading Chronicles and Ezra-Nehemiah amid Early Jewish Literature

Contributions to this session work from the premise that the siloing of texts (due in large part to their reception history) should be disrupted and that the study of Chronicles, Ezra, and Nehemiah alongside potentially contemporaneous Jewish literature (often labeled “pseudepigraphal,” “apocalyptic” or “sectarian”) may mutually illumine these respective “sets” of texts.

SBL Wisdom in Israelite and Cognate Traditions Section / Intertextuality and the Hebrew Bible Section

1:00 PM–3:30 PM

Convention Center (CC) - 102 (Street Level)

Theme: Is "Wisdom Literature" Dead? A Review of An Obituary for "Wisdom Literature" by Will Kynes

This review panel on An Obituary for "Wisdom Literature" is designed to offer an opportunity to evaluate the current state of the field and shape its future. Can we continue to use the "Wisdom Literature" category? If so, does its use need to change in light of recent critiques? If not, what should replace it? To contribute to answering that latter question, this session will be jointly hosted by the Intertextuality in the Hebrew Bible section, which will facilitate the evaluation of the intertextual replacement Kynes and others have proposed for the traditional genre category. Rather than merely providing a collection of reviews of Kynes's book, the panelists will use the questions the book raises as a point of departure for reflecting on where the study of wisdom in Israelite and cognate traditions should go in the future.

This is a joint session (AAR Chinese Christianities Unit and SBL Ethnic Chinese Biblical Colloquium) for a book panel on The Oxford Handbook of the Bible in China (New York: OUP, 2021), reexamining the relationship between the Bible and China.

Program listings in the printed program book are preliminary. All listings should be confirmed against the online program book or the app/desktop planner.

The roundtable session offers the four-fold paradigm of Chinese Bible's translation, expression, interpretation, and reception, and aims: 1) to have a constructive dialogue on the ways the Bible can be truth, beauty, goodness, justice, salvation, grace, and so forth to China and the world—as one holds the tension of both biblical and cultural hermeneutics; 2) to give examples of how Chinese Christianity reads the Bible in the context of world Christianity—thus protecting both world Christianity and Chinese Christianity from misrepresentations of each other.

SBL Fellowships: The Why, the When, the How

4:00 PM–6:30 PM

Embassy Suites (ES) - Crystal B (Third Level)

Sponsored by the Students in the Profession Committee.

Students hear the adage that fellowships beget fellowships, no matter how small, but how does one go about finding, applying for, and winning those fellowships? Join the SBL Students in the Profession Committee for a discussion about all things fellowships: what they are, why you want them, and how to get them. This panel will feature members of fellowship selection committees, students who have landed prestigious national fellowships, and students who have applied for fellowships with varying degrees of success. The focus will be on pre- rather than postdoctoral fellowships. The panelists will answer questions such as the following: How do you find fellowships for which you qualify? How much should you tailor your research to fit the funding agency? Do fellowship selection committees care about anything but your research? Is it worth the time and effort to apply to smaller fellowships? What are the advantages to winning fellowships, besides the monetary ones?

What restrictions, if any, do fellowships place upon your time and research? The panelists will share their experience with fellowships, answer some of these preset questions, and then take questions from those in attendance.

SBL Pauline Theology Section

4:00 PM–6:30 PM

Convention Center (CC) - 104 (Street Level)

Theme: Paul and Mental Health

Papers address questions around the theme of Paul and mental health: Is Paul interested in mental health by either ancient or modern standards? What is the relationship between the mind and the body in Paul's thought? What role might the Pauline communities play in mental health? What, if anything, might the Pauline literature contribute to a theological framework for contemporary issues in mental health? Conversely, what might the field of mental health contribute to a Pauline scholar's reading of the Pauline texts? Do Paul's letters indicate that Paul himself, his congregants, or his compatriots were struggling with their mental health by ancient standards or according to current evidence-based mental health research?

Theme: The Magic of the Crafted Image: Paintings, Talismans, Assemblages

This session is co-sponsored by the AAR Religion in Premodern Europe and the Mediterranean Unit. A sizeable theoretical literature, bridging religion, art history, anthropology, history, and archaeology, has come to regard images not as passive objects of ritual or decorative activity but as agents in a world of vital things. Papers in this session consider the multiple agencies of assemblages, amulets, paintings and wax candles, objects that invite consideration in these new frameworks. As far as possible, contributors to this session will interact with Laurel Kendall's Mediums and Magical Things: Statues, Paintings, and Masks in Asian Places (Berkeley, 2021) in their consideration of particular artefacts (or stories of artefacts).

Embassy Suites (ES) - Silverton 1 (Second Level)

Theme: Pedagogies of Early Jewish-Christian Relations

This session includes reflections on teaching and learning about Jewish-Christian relations in antiquity. Papers may take an abstract or theoretical approach, considering one or more of the big questions implicit in teaching courses on Jewish-Christian relations. Alternatively, they may be practical, outlining specific strategies, assignments, forms of assessment, or structures for any kind of classroom setting. Also welcome are strategies for soliciting respectful dialogue across religious differences.

S21-144

Society for Ancient Mediterranean Religions / Greco-Roman Religions Section

9:00 AM–11:30 AM

Hyatt Regency (HR) - Centennial F (Third Level)

Theme: Remodeling the Motel of the Mysteries

A rich range of new approaches has reinvigorated the study of Greek and Roman mystery cults. New technologies for reconstructing the affective, embodied, interactive experience of these rituals open previously inaccessible frameworks for a phenomenology of the mysteries. Fresh lenses on the Christian fathers read them less as the voice of Christianity triumphant than as interlocutors in the complex processes of social, personal, and gender identities the rites enabled. Digital humanities approaches enable consideration of soundscapes and social networks; comparative studies draw on ethnographic models of secrecy; contextual approaches explore intersections with magic. More detailed historical-philological studies on specific cult sites and activities have shown the different ways in which Greeks and Romans made use of such rites. This panel invites papers focused on innovations in theory and method in relation to Greek and Roman mystery cults, framing an emerging analytical horizon for rites sealed by secrecy.

S21-216

SBL Early Jewish Christian Relations Section

1:00 PM–3:30 PM

Convention Center (CC) - 708 (Street Level)

Theme: Rabbinics and "Relations"

What does the study of early Jewish Christian relations look like from the perspective of the study of rabbinics? What insights might non-specialists glean from the work of rabbinics scholars for thinking about early Jewish-Christian relations? How do the "relations" between these two groups appear when viewed from the perspective of rabbinics, and how might that perspective function as a corrective to other ways of describing the relationships between Judaism and Christianity in antiquity? What kinds of interdisciplinary partnerships might enhance scholarship in this area, and how should scholars of early Christianity go about forging such partnership?

SBL Historiography and the Hebrew Bible Section

1:00 PM–3:30 PM

Convention Center (CC) - Mile High 1B (Lower Level)

Theme: Inscribing Israel: Finkelstein’s Biblical Historiography and the Practice of Writing History

In his new book Biblical Historiography: From Jeroboam II to John Hyrcanus (Mohr Siebeck, 2022), Israel Finkelstein observes, “The study of the history of Ancient Israel – and hence biblical historiography – is based on three pillars: biblical exegesis, archaeology and the records of the ancient Near East” (1). With Finkelstein’s book as its focus, this session brings together a diverse group of scholars who bring a range of expertise and perspectives to their work on the relationship of the Bible to the lived past. Our goal is to use Finkelstein’s collection to generate a provocative and stimulating discussion of present research and future directions in the field, paths that Finkelstein’s work in some ways has helped to pave. Each panelist will present on an aspect of Finkelstein’s work that is of particular interest from the standpoint of their own research, and will address the implications for future research. How has his work shifted the field and changed the starting point for conversations? What remains to be done? We encourage panelists to think creatively and freely about the field and their own work in ways that may extend beyond the parameters of a traditional book session.

S21-332

SBL Qumran Section

4:00 PM–6:30 PM

Convention Center (CC) - Mile High 1D (Lower Level)

Theme: Dating Issues and Significance of Dating

The field of Qumran studies has largely relied on paleographic dating of the scrolls and on the ever-improving method of C14 tests. Recent advances are now available in both fields. At the same time, scholars are more aware of the difficulty of “dating a text” as the text itself is a multivalent concept (and stands in relation to “work,” “scroll,” “fragment,” “edition”), and the dating of a (constructed) scroll might not be identical with the assumed dating of a work. This is all the more difficult when literary works are thought to include earlier sources or traditions. The linguistic method of dating, debated with regard to Biblical Hebrew, may contribute to dating the language and style of yahad compositions. Finally, the dating question has been considered in relation to the caves, some caves housing an older collection and others a younger (in average) collection. While it is difficult to arrive at absolute dates, scholars may aim at relative datings, that is, to identify which scrolls come first in relation to later ones. The scrolls do not float in the air but are rather anchored in a concrete historical reality. Are we able to outline rough stages of literary production on the above noted grounds? How is the Hasmonean era different from the Herodian era, and are these valid differentiators in relation to time periods?

SBL Early Jewish Christian Relations Section

9:00 AM–11:30 AM

Hyatt Regency (HR) - Capitol 5 (Fourth Level)

Theme: Conversion

This session includes reflection on conversion as a category of scholarly inquiry as well as a lived experience for ancient people. How should we think about conversion among ancient Jews and Christians (and between Christianity and Judaism), and how do our ways of describing conversion reflect both ancient and modern biases? Is conversion a religious, political, and/or social category? How does conversion appear in the literatures and material cultures of antiquity, and what can those appearances say about the way Jews and Christians related to each other? In short, what is at stake in our discourses of conversion?

ACADEMY INFORMATION

AAR MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

With almost 8,000 members, the American Academy of Religion (AAR) is the world's largest organization dedicated to serving teachers, scholars, and other professionals in the field of religion. AAR members are scholars affiliated with institutions of higher education, media and publishing professionals, clergy, independent scholars, high school teachers, and nonprofit community workers. The professional diversity of the AAR's membership reflects the substantial and growing role religion plays in the lives of individuals and communities as well as in social, political, and economic events worldwide. Through academic conferences and meetings, publications, and a variety of programs and membership services, the Academy fosters excellence in the scholarship and teaching of religion.

The AAR holds a seat on the American Council of Learned Societies and works cooperatively with other associations to promote the academic study of religion. Membership is open to all who share an interest in this field and in the work of the Academy. AAR members receive the quarterly Journal of the American Academy of Religion (JAAR); Religious Studies News, an online news publication; and e-Bulletins. All members receive discounts on Annual Meeting registration fees and on subscriptions to various publications. Additionally, members have access to Employment Listings, a web-based employment information service.

Membership in the American Academy of Religion can be established by our online membership system at www.aarweb.org/AARMBR/Join-Renew/AARMBR/Membership-/Membership-Categories-and-Rates.aspx, or by calling our offices at 1-404-727-3049.

AAR SUBSCRIPTIONS

Journal of the American Academy of Religion

Distributed to all AAR members, JAAR includes scholarly articles on the full range of world religious traditions together with studies of methodologies by which they are explored. Each issue contains articles of general interest and importance to the field and a lengthy book review section.

Published quarterly; approximately 300 pages per issue. Editor: Andrea Jain, Indiana University-Purdue University, Indianapolis.

Institutional Subscription: US$377 print and online; US$348 for print only; or US$290 for online only. For institutional subscriptions to JAAR, please contact Oxford University Press at academic.oup.com/jaar/subscribe or in North America at 1-800-852-7323 or elsewhere at +44 (0) 1865 353907.

Religious Studies News (rsn.aarweb.org)

Religious Studies News is the web magazine of the American Academy of Religion and is designed as a platform for students and professionals in the field to report on research trends, issues in religious studies and higher education, and apply the academic study of religion to broader public conversations. RSN also examines critical issues in education and pedagogy (especially through Spotlight on Teaching and Spotlight on Theological Education), as well as topics especially relevant to minority scholars in academia. In addition to serving as a resource for people studying in an academic environment, RSN is also intended to be a public face of the scholarly study of religion. It is published throughout the calendar year with new content about every two weeks.

Reading Religion (readingreligion.org)

Reading Religion (RR) is an open book review website published by the American Academy of Religion. Launched in 2016, the site provides up-to-date coverage of scholarly publishing in religious studies, reviewed by scholars with special interest and/or expertise in the relevant subfields. Reviews are concise, comprehensive, and timely.

RR reviews scholarly books about religion. Reviewers do not need to be members of the AAR or be professional religious studies scholars. We welcome reviewers from diverse fields and viewpoints who engage with the topic of religion. Graduate students may review books for RR, but we do expect that reviewers will have done advanced academic work on religion, either in a religious studies department or a related field.

If you are interested in reviewing books for RR, please complete the form at aar.wufoo.com/forms/z1vbpzlc08tuwjt/ and tell us about your areas of expertise.

For publishers interested in submitting books for review, please contact Kimberly Davis at kdavis@aarweb.org. RR does not guarantee listing of any books received or review of any books received.

NOMINATION FOR SERVICE IN THE AAR

Much of the work of the Academy is accomplished through its board, committees, and program units. These groups are composed of individuals who contribute their time and talents to the AAR's mission of fostering excellence in the academic study of religion and enhancing the public understanding of religion. For the ongoing vitality of the Academy's work, it is important to welcome new voices into the conversation and to achieve a broad and diverse range of member participation in these leadership positions.

Nominations for Board of Directors Positions

Each year the AAR's Governance and Leadership Development Committee selects persons to stand for election by the membership. Because terms of office vary, not every position is open every year. The Governance and Leadership Development Committee seeks the participation of the membership in its process. An open call for Board of Directors nominations is held each year. Members may nominate themselves or others during the open call period. Please contact nominations@aarweb.org for more information.

Nominations for Appointments to Working Groups

Appointments to AAR Working Groups are made by the AAR President in consultation with the AAR Executive Director and relevant working group chairs. An open call for nominations is held each year. Members may nominate themselves or others during the open call period. Please contact nominations@aarweb.org for more information.

PROGRAM UNIT CHAIRS

Each AAR Program Unit has two co-chairs who oversee the Program Unit's activities. Program Unit chairs provide the leadership needed to conduct the AAR's Annual Meeting. Without them, there simply would not be an Annual Meeting. We are grateful for their service on behalf of the AAR and the field.

PLENARY SESSIONS

AAR Plenary Ballroom — Convention Center—Four Seasons 1

Plenary Panel: Valeria Luiselli (A19-144)

Saturday, 11:15 AM–12:15 PM

Convention Center-Four Seasons 1 (Lower Level)

Mayra Rivera, Harvard University, Presiding

Valeria Luiselli

Valeria Luiselli was born in Mexico City and grew up in South Korea, South Africa and India. An acclaimed writer of both fiction and nonfiction, she is the author of Sidewalks, Faces in the Crowd, The Story of My Teeth, Tell Me How It Ends: An Essay in Forty Questions and Lost Children Archive. She is the recipient of a 2019 MacArthur Fellowship and the winner of DUBLIN Literary Award, two Los Angeles Times Book Prizes, The Carnegie Medal, an American Book Award, and has been nominated for the National Book Critics Circle Award, the Kirkus Prize, and the Booker Prize.

She has been a National Book Foundation “5 Under 35” honoree and the recipient of a Bearing Witness Fellowship from the Art for Justice Fund. Her work has appeared in The New Yorker, The New York Times, Granta, and McSweeney’s, among other publications, and has been translated into more than twenty languages. She is a Writer in Residence at Bard College and lives in New York City.

Panelist:

Valeria Luiselli, Independent Scholar

Presidential Address: Mayra Rivera (A19-500)

Saturday, 7:00 PM–8:00 PM

Convention Center-Four Seasons 1 (Lower Level)

Amir Hussain, Loyola Marymount University, Presiding

Mayra Rivera

Theme: What Is the Role of the Study of Religion in Times of Catastrophe?

As the consequences of climate change become more evident around the world, the study of religion must wrestle with its implications, not just for the themes we address, but also for the approaches we use. This address is a reflection on the significance of climate change for our ways of knowing and an invitation to work together to transform our practice in response to the environmental devastation that shape our worlds.

Plenary Panel: Ramón Cruz (A20-141)

Sunday, 11:15 AM–12:15 PM

Convention Center-Four Seasons 1 (Lower Level)

Mayra Rivera, Harvard University, Presiding

Ramón Cruz

Ramón Cruz is the president of the Sierra Club, the first Latino to hold that position. Cruz holds degrees from American University in Washington, D.C., and Princeton University in New Jersey. He has over 20 years of experience in advocacy at the intersection of sustainability, environmental and energy policy, urban planning, and climate change. He has worked as deputy director of the state environmental regulatory agency in Puerto Rico, and held senior positions at the Environmental Defense Fund, the Partnership for New York City, and the Institute for Transportation &

Development Policy. At the Sierra Club he has advocated for “listening to, and acting on, the moral clarity of those who have been the main victims of environmental crises but don’t have seats at the decision-making tables. It involves deepening our understanding of how racism and other systems of oppression fuel environmental harm.”

Panelist:

Ramón Cruz, Sierra Club

Plenary Panel: Environmental Justice in Times of Catastrophe (A21-142)

Monday, 11:15 AM–12:15 PM

Convention Center-Four Seasons 1 (Lower Level)

Mayra Rivera, Harvard University, Presiding

Panelists will draw on the research to discuss the contributions of an environmental justice framework for analyzing and narrating the differential effects of climate catastrophe and imagine the common good.

Member Benefits

The AAR serves as the largest learned society dedicated to the academic study of religion. Through the AAR's many programs and services, members from around the world can connect at in-person events, through online communities, and as volunteer leaders on committees, task forces, and juries.

NETWORKING AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

For more than a century, the AAR has convened scholars of religion for discussion, collaboration, and professional development. The AAR's Annual and Regional Meetings bring together scholars from around the world for presentations and critique, workshops, networking, and conversation with publishers. Scholars can also engage through the AAR member directory and online communities.

PUBLICATIONS

Members enjoy online access to the Journal of the American Academy of Religion (JAAR), the monthly Member News, Religious Studies News, the AAR book series, In the Field, and the Reading Religion book review website. The AAR also has partnerships with JSTOR and academic presses to help members without strong library privileges continue their research.

EMPLOYMENT SERVICES

AAR members enjoy access to numerous career resources, including Employment Listings, the most comprehensive listings of job postings within the field, online training for job seekers, funding opportunities for research projects and travel to the Annual Meeting, and promotion of professional accomplishments through official AAR channels.

VOLUNTEER

Serving on a committee, task force, or jury offers meaningful opportunities to connect with scholars who share similar interests or expertise. Becoming a volunteer leader also helps advance the AAR's work and strengthen the overall membership.

GRANTS

The AAR maintains several grant programs for members, awarding tens of thousands of dollars each year. Eligible applicants can seek funding for regional development grants, travel grants to attend the AAR Annual Meeting, public engagement fellowships and seed grants, and research grants for international dissertation work, collaboration with other scholars, and individual projects.

DISCOUNTS

AAR's partner in publishing, Oxford University Press, offers members a 30% discount on academic and trade books across all disciplines. More than twenty academic journals and book publishers offer discounts to AAR members. In addition, all members receive a discount on registration to the Annual Meetings hosted by the AAR and SBL.

Support the

AAR ACADEMY FUND

The Academy Fund provides much needed support for general and programmatic operations that support AAR's mission to foster excellence in the academic study of religion and to enhance the public understanding of religion. Contributions to this fund help AAR implement the work of our committees/working groups and execute the Annual Meeting.

Donate today at

aarweb.org/AARMBR/Give_to_the_AAR_Academy_Fund.aspx

ANNUAL MEETING TRAVEL GRANTS

AAR's Annual Meeting Travel Grants Fund provides support to defray costs and make attending the Annual Meeting a reality for members who may otherwise find the cost of attendance to be prohibitive. Contributions to this fund will help to broaden the participation at the Annual Meeting for our student, contingent faculty, and unemployed/underemployed members where their attendance, delivering of papers, serving on panels, and interviewing at the Employment Center affords them with valuable opportunities for scholarly development.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITION FUND

The Awards and Recognition Fund provides support to AAR's awards programs that recognize extraordinary contributions to the academic study of religion and the public understanding of religion as well as service to the AAR membership. Contributions to this fund will help AAR to continue to offer awards such as the Excellence in Teaching Award, Ray L. Hart Service Award, Martin E. Marty Award for the Public Understanding of Religion, Religion and the Arts Award, Book Awards, and Journalism Awards.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT GRANTS FUND

The Research and Development Grant Fund provides support to AAR's grant programs that provide funding for development grants, public engagement fellowships and seed grants. Contributions to this fund will help AAR to continue to offer widely popular grants programs such as individual research grants, collaborative research grants, collaborative international research grants, international dissertation research and regional development grants.

AAR COVID-19 CRISIS FUND

The AAR recognizes that some members have been adversely impacted financially by the pandemic. With this in mind, the 2020 AAR COVID-19 Crisis Fund was established to provide mini grants to members who have lost a significant portion of their income. While this fund cannot provide continuing sustenance for members in crisis situations, the hope is to provide a small financial bridge during a difficult situation.

The AAR is a 501(c)3 tax-exempt organization recognized by the IRS. Your gift is tax deductible to the extent allowed by law.

PROGRAM SESSIONS

Although the American Academy of Religion cooperates with Related Scholarly Organizations (RSOs) that have similar missions as the AAR, and provides them space for their meetings (sessions marked with a P#), the content of these sessions is not reviewed by either the AAR's Program Units or its Program Committee.

Saturday, 9:15 AM–12:00 PM

Offsite

Learn how the Colorado Village Collaborative (CVC) brings together a coalition of diverse voices and actors concerned with providing housing with dignity to people who are experiencing homelessness in Denver. Tour includes a visit to a CVC site and a discussion to learn how religion shapes homelessness in Denver and how we as AAR attendees might leave conference cities a little better off because of our visit.

For more information and to sign up, visit <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/379906629957>. The tour is limited to 20 participants and is free with the generous support of the Center for Religion and Cities at Morgan State University and the Institute for Religion, Politics & Culture at Iliff School of Theology. Transportation will be by public transportation.

OTHER EVENTS

Other Events conveniently allow members to gather voluntarily and to host receptions, networking events, and private meetings during the Annual Meetings. Their inclusion in the Program Book does not constitute an endorsement by the American Academy of Religion or the Society of Biblical Literature. While AAR and SBL provide space for activities listed as "Other Events," the content and purpose of these gatherings are not reviewed by either the AAR or SBL's Program Units or their Program Committees. However, any organization or group of members that reserves space for an Other Event is expected to adhere to AAR and SBL policies and core values in holding events.

Institute for Biblical Research

Theme: Scripture and Doctrine Seminar

Friday, 1:00 PM–3:15 PM

Sheraton Downtown (SD) - Governor's Square 15 (Plaza Tower - Concourse Level)

Recent decades have witnessed several fruitful attempts to bridge the gap between the often-siloed disciplines of biblical studies and Christian doctrine. Many of these efforts have been carried out under the banner of the "theological interpretation of Scripture" (TIS). The TIS movement (to the degree that it can be considered such) is a loose affiliation of scholars from both sides of the Scripture/doctrine divide with many variations of perspective and emphasis. One of the major issues of debate among TIS proponents concerns the role of philosophy, and more specifically philosophical hermeneutics, in both the exegetical and theological task. To speak in very broad terms, TIS proponents are variously influenced by continental, analytic, and classical (e.g., Thomistic) modes of thought on these important philosophical issues. These debates provide the backdrop for this year's seminar, which features papers on the theme, Theology, Philosophy, and Biblical Interpretation. Reimagining Unitarian Universalism's Principles and Purposes: Theological Reflections on the Article II Study Commission

Theme: Unitarian Universalist Scholars and Friends
Friday, 6:30 PM–9:30 PM

Offsite

The Unitarian Universalist Association is currently conducting the most thorough rethinking of its defining purposes since the current Principles and Sources were articulated in 1985. The Article II Study Commission, is charged with proposing amendments to the second article of the UUA bylaws and thus crafting "new Principles and Purposes [that] should guide us in the transformation of ourselves, our communities and our faith into active networks of collective care, restoration, and justice." This work was sparked, in large part, by grassroots efforts to incorporate new language into the existing Principles. The "Eighth Principle Project," for example, seeks an affirmation of work "to build a diverse multicultural Beloved Community by our actions that accountably dismantle racism and other oppressions in ourselves and our institutions." And the "First Principle Project" hopes to include non-human persons in our affirmation of the inherent worth and dignity of all persons.

The Article II Study Commission is actively seeking engagement with diverse stakeholders. Thus, our annual gathering of scholars will reflect together on what it means to redefine core principles within a covenantal tradition long committed to freedom of belief.

When asked about how a student could excel in biblical exegesis, Brevard Childs answered, "If you want to do better exegesis, become a deeper person." This raises the question, how does one become a deeper person such that it enhances one's interpretation of the Bible? The SAHS is embarking on a multi-year project on spiritual formation and biblical interpretation. This project will consider (among other things) two main questions: (1) What is the role of spiritual formation in biblical interpretation? (2) How does Scripture as God's instruction provide resources for thinking about and submitting to the process of spiritual formation? The chairs welcome feedback and those interested in this project are encouraged to get in touch. There will likely be associated virtual sessions on this topic throughout the year so please keep an eye on website for the Kirby Laing Centre (and/or subscribe to the KLC newsletter). For more information, please contact Dave Beldman (dbeldman@redeemer.ca) and A.J. Culp (koinos1@yahoo.com).

Colin Brown's A History of the Quests for the Historical Jesus

Theme: Zondervan Academic

Sunday, 3:30 PM–5:00 PM

Convention Center-Mile High 4F (Lower Level)

Join us for a brief program and discussion of the late Colin Brown's A History of the Quests for the Historical Jesus. Brought to its final form by Craig A. Evans, this landmark work presents a new survey and analysis of the quests for the historical Jesus, beginning with the evolution of orthodoxy and quests before Schweitzer's, through the Nazi attempt to make Jesus an Aryan critic of Judaism, and to today's ongoing questions about criteria, methods, and specific issues. Brown assesses not only the historical, exegetical, and critical elements of the debate but also its philosophical and theological underpinnings—with a focus on the role of hermeneutics in formulating questions and seeking answers.

Space is limited. Please RSVP at ZondervanAcademic.com/Quests.

Jesus among the gods

Early Christology in the Greco-Roman World

$59.99 $41.99 Hardcover | 480 pages | 6 x 9
ISBN 978-1-4813-1675-0

"Michael Bird's Jesus among the gods is a wealth of information about early christologies in early Jewish and Greco-Roman settings. Well-written and organized, Bird examines primary sources and current research with encyclopedic thoroughness, offering a fresh, nuanced view of Christ's uniqueness in light of correspondences with ancient intermediary figures. A must-read for students of early Christianity."

Being and Becoming

Human Transformation in the Letters of Paul

$64.99 $45.49 Hardcover | 366 pages | 6 x 9

ISBN 978-1-4813-1726-9

"Not only does this study situate Paul in continuity and discontinuity with his cultural context, but it also subtly invites readers to scrutinize their own assumptions about the self, subjectivity, and transformation as they encounter Paul's ways of formulating the issues—a stimulating and sometimes unsettling experience."

—CAROL A. NEWSOM, Emory University

The Speeches in Acts and the Essence of Christianity

$42.99 $30.09 Hardback | 214 pages | 5.5 x 8.5

ISBN 978-1-4813-1786-3

"In this extraordinary study, Holmes practices a kind of theological exegesis of Acts in which the speeches of Peter and Paul become transparent to their ultimate source and ground: nothing less than the triune identity and being of the God of the gospel."

—PHILIP G. ZIEGLER, University of Aberdeen

Cursing with God

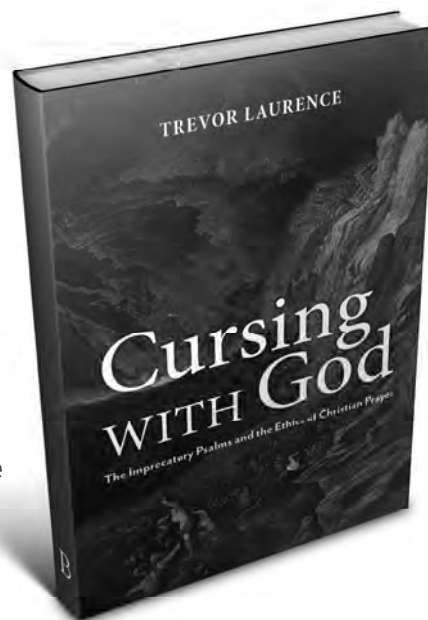

The Imprecatory Psalms and the Ethics of Christian Prayer

$59.99 $41.99 Hardback | 408 pages | 6 x 9

ISBN 978-1-4813-1636-1

"Trevor Laurence suggests that Christians' cries for God's justice—as these texts are read liturgically—may yet serve as a powerful resource for forming disciples to both pray and live virtuously in a world where 'the wicked prowl ... vileness is exalted' (Ps 12:8). Whether you agree or disagree, this book should not be ignored."

Textual Criticism of the Hebrew
Bible: Revised and
Expanded Fourth
Edition

Emanuel Tov

$90.00

Available

Hardcover | 524 PGS

9781506483481

Since its initial publication in 1992, Textual Criticism of the Hebrew Bible has established itself as the indispensable resource for student, teacher, and researcher.

In this completely revised fourth edition, Emanuel Tov once again proves himself the authority on the text of the Hebrew Bible. While Tov incorporates the last ten years of scholarship, including the new studies on the Dead Sea Scrolls, this new volume presents a more simplified and practical analysis than its earlier editions.

Jonah: A Commentary

Susan Niditch

$59.00

January 3, 2023

Hardcover | 162 PGS

9780800699031

In the new Hermeneia volume, renowned biblical scholar Susan Niditch encourages the reader to investigate challenging questions about ancient conceptions of personal religious identity.

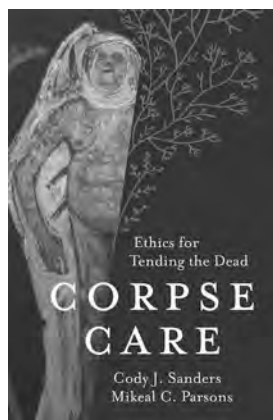

In her study of Jonah's language, style, structure, content, and context, Niditch examines the text through the comparative lens of international folklore. Appropriations of Jonah by post-biblical creators is explored, and special attention is paid to rabbinic midrash, medieval Jewish manuscript illuminations, and Christian art of late antiquity.

Dialogue across Borders: Emerging Perspectives on Intercultural and Interreligious Relations

For decades, global media discourse has tended to highlight controversial and often negative perspectives on the Middle East and North Africa by focusing on extremism and conflict. Without denying these significant challenges, Dialogue across Borders seeks to highlight voices within the region who are working toward a more peaceful and inclusive future.

Language Courses at the Syriac Institute Summer 2023

Join us over the summer (either virtually or, if fully-vaccinated, in person) for two intensive courses taught by Dr. George Kiraz, a fluent Syriac speaker and one of the world's leading Syriac grammarians. This is a unique opportunity to experience Syriac as a living culture, including hearing the language spoken by native speakers. Introductory level and intermediate level available. Register and learn more at www.bethmardutho.org.

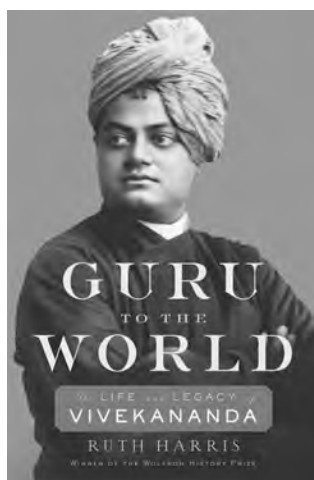

Syriac-English New Testament

The Traditional Syriac Peshitta Text and the Antioch Bible English Translation

General Editor George Anton Kiraz; Translated by Jeff W. Childers, J. Edward Walters, Daniel King, Robert A. Kitchen, Jerome Alan Lund & James Prather

Following the success of the Antioch Bible, this publication is a new, historic edition of the Syriac-English New Testament in a single volume. The volume is available in bilingual Syriac-English and English-only formats as both gilded and standard editions.

NEW AND NOTEWORTHY

“More than One is a feast for the eyes and a challenge to the soul, portraying the world’s great faiths in all their color, diversity, and sacred energy.”

—JOEL CARPENTER

Nagel Institute for the Study of World Christianity,
Calvin University

“More than One stands out clearly from the quite large field of books intended for classes on World Religions. . . . The result is a highly user-friendly text, which gains greatly from excellent illustrations.”

—PHILIP JENKINS

Distinguished Professor of History,
Institute for Studies of Religion, Baylor University

“More than One is an excellent introductory textbook for learning the creeds, codes, ceremonies, and community of religions worldwide. Historical and current illustrations, a clear structure, and definitions of terms depict diverse religious realities and make the book accessible for teaching and studying.”

—SUSANGELINE PATRICK

Assistant Professor of World Christianity, Nazarene Theological Seminary, Kansas City, MO; faculty member, NAIITS, an Indigenous Learning Community

“Dyron Daughrity is a scholar of enormous energy, skill, and thoughtfulness. The lucid prose and colorful illustrations of this book make it an enjoyable introduction to the study of world religions.”

—CHANDRA MALLAMPALLI

Professor of History, Westmont College

Disruptive Cartographers Series

Series editors: Carmen M. Nanko- Fernández (Catholic Theological Union in Chicago), Miguel H. Díaz (Loyola University Chicago), and Gary Riebe-Estrella, S.V.D. (Catholic Theological Union in Chicago)

This multi-volume series re-maps theology and pushes out in new directions from varying coordinates across a spectrum of latinidad as lived in the United States. Authors reconfigure and disrupt key areas like revelation, eschatology, and trinity. Other volumes complicate and advance even further key themes of significance in Latin@ theologies, including the option for culture, religious diversity, and Mary.

Past Light on Present Life

Theology, Ethics, and Spirituality

Edited and with Commentary by Roger Haight, S.J., Alfred Pach III, and Amanda Avila Kaminski

These volumes are offered to the academic community of teachers and learners in the fields of Christian history, theology, ethics, and spirituality. They introduce classic texts by authors whose contributions have markedly affected the development of Christianity, especially in the West. The texts are accompanied by an introductory essay on context and key themes and followed by an interpretation that dialogically engages the original message with the issues of ethics, theology, and spirituality in the present.
