Application for Affiliation with the Society of Biblical Literature

Upon authorization by its Council, the Society may affiliate or cooperate with organizations whose mission is consonant with the Society’s mission to “foster biblical scholarship.” The Society may authorize such organizations to contribute to the programming of the SBL as Affiliate Organizations. Other details about affiliation, including eligibility and benefits, are at http://www.sbl-site.org/meetings/AffiliateOrganizations.aspx.

1. Please provide your name.

2. Please provide your email address.

3. Please provide the organization’s full formal name (not abbreviations or acronyms).

Reasons for Affiliating with SBL
Stress alignment with SBL’s mission and values, which are listed at http://www.sbl-site.org/aboutus/mission.aspx.

4. How would the organization’s affiliation advance SBL’s efforts to foster biblical scholarship?

5. How would the organization’s affiliation align with and support SBL’s core values?
6. What efforts has the organization made to invite broad and inclusive participation, including diverse scholarly points of view?

........................................................................................................................................
........................................................................................................................................
........................................................................................................................................
........................................................................................................................................
........................................................................................................................................

Organizational Profile

7. Please state the organization's formal mission statement.

........................................................................................................................................
........................................................................................................................................
........................................................................................................................................
........................................................................................................................................
........................................................................................................................................
........................................................................................................................................

8. Please state the organization's public description (typically an elaboration of the mission statement).

........................................................................................................................................
........................................................................................................................................
........................................................................................................................................
........................................................................................................................................
........................................................................................................................................
........................................................................................................................................

9. How many members does the organization have?

Mark only one oval.

- [ ] 1-100
- [ ] 101-250
- [ ] 251-750
- [ ] 751-2,000
- [ ] 2,001-5,000
- [ ] 5,001-10,000
- [ ] 10,001+
10. How many persons typically attend the organization's main meeting?
Mark only one oval.
- [ ] 1-50
- [ ] 51-100
- [ ] 101-200
- [ ] 501-1,000
- [ ] 1,001-2,000
- [ ] 2,001-5,000
- [ ] 5,001+

11. List the officers or personnel to be involved in communication with SBL (include name, location, institution, and contact information, as well as title or description of the person’s role in the organization).

........................................................................................................................................

........................................................................................................................................

........................................................................................................................................

........................................................................................................................................

........................................................................................................................................