After the Corinthian Women Prophets Reimagining Rhetoric and Power

Joseph A. Marchal, editor

Rhetoric, Power, and Possibilities

Thirty years after the publication of Antoinette Clark Wire's groundbreaking The Corinthian Women Prophets, an interdisciplinary, international, and intergenerational group of scholars reflects upon Wire's impact on New Testament scholarship. Essays pursue further historical and theoretical possibilities, often in search of marginalized people, including the women of Corinth, using feminist, rhetorical, materialist, decolonizing, queer, and posthumanist approaches to interpret Paul's letters and the history of ancient Mediterranean assemblies. Contributions from Cavan Concannon, Arminta Fox, Joseph A. Marchal, Shelly Matthews, Anna Miller, Jorunn Økland, and Antoinette Clark Wire reconsider how both the methods and results of Wire's work reveal the possibilities of other people beside Paul who are worth our attention and effort.

Joseph A. Marchal (any pronouns used with respect are welcome) is Professor of Religious Studies and affiliate faculty in Women's and Gender Studies at Ball State University. He is the author of four books—most recently Appalling Bodies: Queer Figures before and after Paul's Letters (2020)—and editor or coeditor of six collections, three with SBL Press, including Bodies on the Verge: Queering Pauline Epistles (2019) and The People beside Paul: The Philippian Assembly and History from Below (2015), with more in preparation. They are currently serving as chair of the Society of Biblical Literature's first-ever LGBTQ+ Task Force and a founding coeditor of QTR: A Journal of Queer and Transgender Studies in Religion.
