

Neo-Babylonian Trial Records

Shalom E. Holtz

An essential collection for research into the history of law

This collection of sixth-century B.C.E. Mesopotamian texts provides a close-up, often dramatic, view of ancient courtroom encounters shedding light on Neo-Babylonian legal culture and daily life. In addition to the legal texts, Holtz provides an introduction to Neo-Babylonian social history, archival records, and legal materials.

Features:

- Fifty new English translations
- Transliterations for use in advanced Akkadian courses
- Background essays perfect for courses dealing with ancient Near Eastern history and law
- Explanatory essays preceding each text and its translation

Shalom E. Holtz is Associate Professor of Bible and chair of the Robert M. Beren Department of Jewish Studies at Yeshiva University in New York. An Assyriologist and biblical scholar, his publications address Mesopotamian law and religious literature and their relationships to biblical and postbiblical writings. He is the author of Neo-Babylonian Court Procedure (Brill, 2009).
