

The People beside Paul: The Philippian Assembly and History from Below

Edited by Joseph A. Marchal

Who are the people beside Paul, and what can we know about them?

This volume brings together an international and interdisciplinary group of scholars representing a range of expertise with a common interest: Philippi in antiquity. Each contribution attends to one set of contextual particularities for these people, while simultaneously placing them in wider Greco-Roman settings. The contributions offer crucial insights into often-explored questions concerning the letter's hymn and audience, Paul's opponents, and the sites of the community and of Paul's imprisonment. Additionally, contributors examine issues related to women, slaves, Jews, and members of localized cults.
